Focused on enhancing culture through value-based leadership, while emphasizing student-athlete wellness and the commitment to providing an inclusive environment, Travis Goff is in his fourth year as Athletic Director for the University of Kansas. He was appointed to the position by Chancellor Douglas Girod on April 5, 2021. A Kansas graduate with deep roots in his home state, Goff signed a seven-year contract extension with the Jayhawks in May of 2024.

The Dodge City native has already had a memorable tenure leading the Jayhawks in his time back at his Alma mater. In October of 2022, Goff and Chancellor Douglas Girod announced plans for the Gateway District, which will profoundly change the north entrance to campus with a re-imagined David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium and a state-of-the-art conference center and additional mixed-use development opportunities that will enable year-round use and drive economic development in Lawrence. Goff and Girod announced further details and renderings in August of 2023. Construction on the stadium began after the 2023 football season. Phase 1 of David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium will debut in 2025 when Kansas football opens its season against Fresno State on Aug. 23.

Goff also led a $50 million project to upgrade historic Allen Fieldhouse, which was completed prior to the 2024-25 season. The intense renovations touched both the concourses and the inside of the gym. Inside the seating bowl, a new state-of-the-art center-hung videoboard was added in addition to two LED video displays in the southwest and northeast corners of the Fieldhouse. The accessibility of the building was also enhanced by doubling the amount of ADA seating in the arena. There were also 1,100 new chairback seats added, while the playing court was replaced and included a lighter finish and circus font graphics. The concourses were also reimagined, specifically on the second and third levels. Concession points of sales were doubled, while every bathroom in the building was renovated in some fashion. Additionally, the first-ever on-site cooking kitchen was added and managed by OVG, the athletic department's hospitality partner. All hospitality spaces were also overhauled in the project.

On the playing field, Goff has seen the Jayhawks experience major success, highlighted by men's basketball claiming its sixth National Championship with a 72-69 victory over North Carolina at the Caesars Superdome in New Orleans in 2022. In his time since taking over as Athletic Director, Goff has seen several programs experience breakthrough seasons. The football program has been at the forefront, reaching its first bowl game since 2008 with an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and its first bowl win since 2008 with a win in the 2023 Guaranteed Rate Bowl. Since the start of the 2022 season, Kansas has appeared in the AP Top-25 nine times, including two appearances in 2024. Kansas' appearance in 2022 was the first for the Jayhawks since 2009.

Other highlights since Goff's arrival include:

- Volleyball advancing to its first Sweet Sixteen since 2015 in 2021, and following it up with a second-round appearances in 2022, 2023 and 2024.
- Women's Basketball returning to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2013 under the leadership of 2022 Big 12 Coach of the Year Brandon Schneider and returning to the field in 2024.
- Women's Basketball claiming the 2023 WNIT Championship in front of 11,701 fans at Allen Fieldhouse.
- Men's Golf finishing fifth at NCAA Regionals in 2022 to advance to the NCAA Championships for the second time under coach Jamie Bermel. The Jayhawks also qualified for NCAA Regionals in 2023 and 2024 and have made eight straight regional appearances, which ties a program record.

- Women's Golf reaching back-to-back NCAA Regionals for the first time in program history and a Top 25 national ranking.
- Tennis reaching the NCAA Tournament for the fifth and sixth times under coach Todd Chapman, including a first-round win over Charlotte in the 2023 tournament.
- Swim & Dive finishing second at the Big 12 Championships in 2022 and qualifying Kate Steward for the NCAA Championships in three events. Diver Shiyun Lie was named an Honorable Mention All-American in 2024 after a strong performance at the NCAA Championships.
- Track and Field earning three All-America honors at the NCAA Indoor Championships and nine at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in 2022, including five first-team honors between the two events. The men's squad placed 10th overall at the 2024 NCAA Outdoor Championships with four scorers, Clayton Simms, Devin Loudermilk, Chandler Gibbens and Dimitrios Pavlidis.

Since arriving in Lawrence, Goff has hired five new head coaches. His first hire was head football coach Lance Leipold, a six-time National Champion and the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach 100 career wins. Leipold led the Jayhawks to their first Big 12 Conference road win since 2008 in his first year as coach, before a breakthrough season in year two leading the Jayhawks. In 2022, Leipold and Kansas won six games and played in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, marking the program's first bowl appearance since the 2008 Insight Bowl. The program also hosted ESPN's College GameDay for the first time ever, before the team's matchup against eventual national runner-up, TCU. In Leipold's third season in 2023, the program again reached bowl eligibility with a thrilling upset of No. 6 Oklahoma, 38-33 at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium. Leipold and the Jayhawks went on to post nine wins and earn a win in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl against UNLV. In 2024, Kansas beat three-straight ranked teams in November to finish the season strong.

Outside of Leipold, Goff has also added seven-time conference coach of the year Lindsay Kuhle as the head coach of women's golf and Dan Fitzgerald, an elite recruiter, player developer and coach to lead the baseball program and accomplished leader Nate Lie to lead the soccer program. In January of 2025, Goff hired his fifth head coach when Matt Ulmer, the youngest head coach ever to win a national championship (men's or women's), was named the seventh head coach in Kansas volleyball history.

Kuhle led women's golf to NCAA Regionals as an at-large berth for just the second time in its history when the Jayhawks were selected for the Athens, Georgia Regional in 2023 and followed that up with another appearance in 2024. Kuhle and the Jayhawks won three tournaments in the fall of 2024 and finished the season ranked inside the Top 25. Kuhle signed a three-year contract extension with Kansas in July of 2024.

Fitzgerald led the baseball program to its first Big 12 Championship win since 2019 when the Jayhawks topped nationally-ranked Texas 6-3 in May, 2023. Fitzgerald, who guided Kansas to the Big 12 Tournament semifinals in 2024, also secured the No. 1 ranked junior college recruiting class in the country and developed back-to-back Big 12 Freshman of the Year winners in Kodey Shojinaga and Dominic Voegele. In his first season, Lie led the Jayhawks to the Big 12 Tournament championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. He became the first coach in conference history to win a Big 12 Tournament title in their first season as head coach. The 13 wins the Jayhawks compiled during the season marked a nine-win improvement from the previous season. Ulmer, who captured a Beach National Championship in 2013 while at Long Beach State, arrived at Kansas from Oregon, where he served as the head coach for seven seasons. There, he led the Ducks to three Elite Eights, five Sweet 16s, four NCAA Tournament regional hosting opportunities and three-straight Top 10 national rankings to close his tenure in Eugene.

In addition to bringing in dynamic new coaches, Goff has also secured some of the top leaders in Kansas Athletics as well. In November of 2023, Goff amended Hall of Fame Coach Bill Self's five-year rolling contract to reflect Self's standing as the most accomplished active coach in college basketball. Goff also signed both Schneider and Bermel to contract extensions, while also extending Track and Field head coach Stanley Redwine, who served as the head coach of Team USA at the 2022 World Track Championships and the 2024 Paris Olympics. Goff has also extended Rowing head coach Carrie Cook-Callen, Leipold and Kuhle.

Success has not been limited to competition as Kansas student-athletes have had record-breaking performances in the classroom since Goff's arrival. In the spring of 2023, Kansas student-athletes combined for a 3.40 GPA. The 3.40 GPA broke a previous record of 3.33, which was set just the previous semester in the fall of 2022. After posting a 3.40 GPA again in both the fall of 2023 and spring of 2024, Kansas student-athletes established a new department record with a 3.45 GPA in the fall of 2024 with 109 student-athletes achieving a perfect 4.0 GPA and 82 percent of student-athletes earning a spot on the AD's Honor Roll.

Under the leadership of Goff, Kansas Athletics has also taken a thorough and comprehensive examination of the changing landscape in college athletics regarding Name, Image and Likeness and revenue sharing. With partnerships with Opendorse and Altius Sports Partners, Kansas has successfully navigated the NIL era as industry leaders. The Altius partnership is designed to maintain KU Athletics' position on the cutting edge of the NIL with educational resources for coaches and staff while the Opendorse marketplace – one of the first of its kind in college sports – maximizes NIL support for student-athletes and mobilizes the KU fan base and local organizations to best support its student-athletes. The department's initial NIL platform – Jayhawks Ascend – was nominated for NIL Program of the Year Award at the 2023 NIL Summit. Goff and the department then navigated the changes in NIL landscape and stayed proactive with the launch of its new NIL platform, Flight, in partnership with Kansas City's own Walz Tetrick Advertising. The innovative partnership reflects a dynamic new approach toward student-athlete corporate endorsement opportunities and education.

Goff, who was named a Next Up honoree by CollegeAD in 2018 and one of Sports Business Journal's "Power Players in College Sports" in 2019, came to Kansas as a seasoned college athletics administrator and program builder. In December of 2024, Goff was named to Ingram's Magazine's "50 Kansans You Should Know" for 2024.

Goff returned to Kansas from Northwestern, where he served as Deputy Athletic Director/Assistant Vice President from 2012-21. Some of the Northwestern's notable accomplishments during his time as an administrative leader there include:
- More than $400 million in new and renovated facilities
- Total fundraising of $460 million to Athletics
- Transformation of sports programs through budget growth and a commitment to passionate, committed and high-character leaders as coaches
- Bolstering on-campus partnerships and exceptional engagement with alumni and fans
- Setting new milestones for success in the classroom, in the community and in competition

A product of a family of Jayhawks, Goff got his start in college athletics at KU in the Williams Educational Fund as an undergraduate. Following his ascension to a fulltime role in the department, Goff was hired at Tulane, where he also received his Masters of Business Administration.

During his time in New Orleans, he was part of the team that rebuilt the athletics program following the devastating impact of Hurricane Katrina. His more than eight-year tenure was highlighted by his role as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs where he was responsible for leading the $70 million athletics fundraising campaign to raise funds to develop an on-campus football stadium. He also held oversight of marketing, ticket sales and operations, sponsorships and communications, and served on the department's executive staff.

Following his successful stay at Tulane, Goff accepted the position of Deputy Athletic Director for Development at Northwestern. In 2016, he added Assistant Vice President to his title.
As part of his role at Northwestern, Goff has been responsible for unprecedented fundraising success as he led all Athletics & Recreation's development efforts. During his time in Evanston, $460 million was raised to support the department. Throughout his tenure, annual fundraising efforts increased from an average of $6-8 million per year to an average of more than $60 million annually. The department set a university record, raising $97 million in one year alone.

On top of the fundraising efforts he led for the Wildcats, Goff served as the sports administrator for the football, volleyball and baseball programs. He also served on the leadership team for the university's Alumni Relations and Development staff as an Assistant Vice President. That dual role required consistent engagement across the institution, and led to unmatched collaboration and efficiency with campus partners.

Goff's leadership in record-setting fundraising created a dramatic transformation of Wildcats facilities during his tenure. In 2018, Northwestern unveiled a $270 million project alongside Lake Michigan, including the 100,000 square-foot Ryan Fieldhouse. an indoor practice space that has supported the preparation of all 19 Wildcats varsity programs and hosted competition for lacrosse and soccer, and Walter Athletics Center, the new hub of the student-athlete experience including state-of-the-art developmental amenities for academic, sports medicine, athletic training, nutrition, professional development and sports performance support.

He also led the fundraising effort for the $110 million renovation of Welsh-Ryan Arena, the competitive home of Wildcats men's and women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling. Alongside the arena, Northwestern opened the $25 million Trienens Performance Center, a new dedicated basketball and volleyball practice facility, and indoor training center for baseball and softball. Goff received his Kansas degrees in Journalism and Sociology, and also holds an MBA from Tulane. He is married to the former Nancy Kockott, a 2005 Tulane alumna (MBA 2008) and former tennis standout for the Green Wave. Together they have two daughters, Ellie and Carly, and a son, Graham.

CHANCELLOR DOUGLAS GIROD

THE GIROD FILE

Position:	University Chancellor
Alma Mater:	UC Davis, 1981
Wife:	Susan

Douglas A. Girod began as the 18th chancellor of the University of Kansas in July 2017. In this role, Chancellor Girod leads KU's mission to educate leaders, build healthy communities and make discoveries that change the world.

Chancellor Girod has established a bold vision for the University of Kansas to be a destination for top scholars from across the world, an engine of economic growth for Kansas, and one of the nation's leading research universities. In pursuing this vision, Chancellor Girod seeks to elevate the university's national stature and enhance KU's membership in the Association of American Universities.

Under Chancellor Girod's leadership, KU has recorded its highest overall enrollment in university history, earned the highest national designation for the KU Cancer Center, increased research expenditures for nine straight years, and established new medical oversight models for student healthcare services. Most recently, he has launched the Gateway District campus development project in Lawrence, initiated a $2.5 billion fundraising campaign to support student and faculty success, and restructured KU's organizational model to better align the university's multiple campuses.

In addition to leading KU, Chancellor Girod currently serves as vice chair of the Association of American Universities board of directors and as vice chair of the Big 12 Conference's board of directors. Together these two two roles have positioned him as a national leader and respected thought leader on key issues affecting higher education.

Before becoming chancellor, Dr. Girod served as executive vice chancellor at KU Medical Center, where he oversaw the educational, research, patient care and community engagement missions of the schools of Medicine, Nursing and Health Professions.

A head-and-neck surgeon, Girod first joined the KU Medical Center faculty in 1994 and quickly rose through the academic ranks, becoming chair of the Otolaryngology department in 2002. In that role, he was instrumental to the University of Kansas Health System being named in the U.S. News & World Report "Best Hospitals" national rankings. He also served as interim executive dean of the KU School of Medicine and as senior associate dean for clinical affairs at the medical center.

Chancellor Girod earned his bachelor's degree in chemistry from the University of California at Davis and his medical degree from the University of California at San Francisco. He completed his residency and an NIH research fellowship at the University of Washington in Seattle. Prior to joining the University of Kansas Medical Center, Girod served as vice chairman and research director in the Department of Otolaryngology at the Naval Medical Center in Oakland.

He served in the United States Navy Reserve from 1982 until 1997, rising to the rank of lieutenant commander and earning the Meritorious Service Medal. He was honorably discharged in 1997.

Committed to caring for patients throughout the world, Girod has led or participated in a dozen international medical missions in places such as Uganda, Guatemala, Mali, the Philippines and Mexico.

Girod has also been active within the community, serving on the board of the Civic Council of Kansas City and on boards of the chambers of commerce in Lawrence and Greater Kansas City, as well as MRI Global. He also serves on the board of directors at the Big 12 Conference. He is on the steering committee for the regional civic community effort known as KC Rising to develop long term economic prosperity for the Kansas City region. He was recognized with a Regional Leadership Award from the Mid America Regional Council in 2016 for his work with KC Rising.

Girod has served as president of the American Head and Neck Society, and vice president of the Triological Society, in addition to other national leadership roles. Of his numerous awards and honors, he is perhaps most proud of his 2006 Student Voice Award for Teaching on a Surgical Rotation, bestowed by students at the University of Kansas School of Medicine.

In his free time, Chancellor Girod enjoys spending time with his wife, Susan, and their three children, riding his motorcycle, attending Kansas Athletics events, serving as the advisor to the KU Car Club, and flyfishing.

KANSAS TRADITIONS

JAYHAWK

Kansas is home of the Jayhawk, a mythical bird with a fascinating history. The term "Jayhawk" was coined about 1848.

CAMPANILE HILL

WAVING THE WHEAT

Since the early days of KU sports, it has been a ritual of Jayhawk fans to "wave the wheat" following every Kansas scoring drive in football. The ritual consists of fans waving their arms in the air, an activity which, when done by a large crowd, resembles a breezy Kansas wheat field.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

The University of Kansas is a premier research institution with a mission to educate leaders, build healthy communities and make discoveries that change the world. The university has more than 40 nationally ranked academic programs and is home to major centers overseeing research in life span issues, the humanities, the environment, biodiversity, and polar ice sheets. KU also has nationally designated cancer and Alzheimer's centers and the state's only schools of medicine and pharmacy, which are vital to training healthcare providers for the state's underserved communities. In addition to making discoveries that change the world, KU research grows the Kansas economy. Last year, KU conducted $230 million in externally funded research, which is new money that flows into Kansas as a result of our research. There are more than 38 active startup companies based on KU technologies, and nearly a dozen out-of-state companies have relocated to Kansas to partner with KU researchers since 2010.

LANCE LEIPOLD HEAD COACH

Lance Leipold, a six-time National Champion, a five-time conference coach of the year and the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach 100 career wins, was named the 41st head coach in Kansas Football history on April 30, 2021.

Leipold's track record as a program builder showed itself early in his time in Lawrence, leading the Jayhawks to back-to-back bowl games in 2022 and 2023, a feat that has only been done in Lawrence once in program history. Leipold has guided Kansas to its first-ever program win in Austin, Texas in 2021, followed by Kansas' first-ever win over West Virginia in Morgantown in 2022 and a win over #6 Oklahoma in 2023. In just his second year at the helm, Leipold helped Kansas to secure its first bowl eligibility with a win over No. 18 Oklahoma State on November 5, 2022, giving Kansas its first bowl berth since 2008. Kansas' ranked win was the first since 2010, snapping a 44-game losing streak to AP ranked opponents, while it was Kansas's first ranked win against a conference opponent at home since 2005.

Leipold has engineered Kansas to one of the greatest stories in college football, guiding Kansas to its first national rankings in 675 weeks, hosting ESPN's College Gameday for the first time in program history on October 8, 2022, hosting FOX Big Noon Kickoff for the first time on Oct. 28, 2023, and earning Kansas' first-ever ranking in the College Football Playoff Ranking on Oct. 31, 2023.

In 2024, Leipold led the Jayhawks to its first preseason ranking in both the AP Preseason Poll and USA Today Coach's Poll since 2008. Kansas played all six of its home games in the Kansas City Metro during the 2024 season while work continued on the University of Kansas Gateway District, as the Jayhawks notched three-straight wins over ranked opponents (No. 16 Iowa State, No. 7 BYU and No. 17 Colorado), marking the first time in program history with three-straight wins over ranked opponents.

Leipold arrived at Kansas after a successful six-year stay at Buffalo, where in his final three seasons, he posted three straight winning seasons for the first time in 20 years. He won 24 games over the final three seasons, which included a seven-game shortened-season schedule in 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, marking the most successful three-year run in Buffalo history.

A proven winner with a strong track record for player development, Leipold served as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater for eight seasons from 2007 to 2014, capturing six NCAA Division III national championships and tallying an astounding record of 109-6.

After taking over a rebuilding Buffalo program that went 7-17 in his first two seasons, Leipold put together a record of 30-16 over his final four seasons, including three bowl appearances and two bowl victories with the Bulls.

Leipold had a 2020 season at Buffalo that brought unprecedented success to the program. The Bulls went a perfect 5-0 in the regular season and won the MAC East Division title for the second-straight year. Leipold's squad also beat Marshall in the Camellia Bowl for the program's second ever bowl win and second in as many years.

Buffalo also appeared in the Associated Press Top 25 at No. 24 on December 6, 2020, marking the first-time in school history the Bulls appeared in the national rankings. The team finished the season ranked 25th in both the AP poll and the Amway Coaches Poll. Leipold was named the MAC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after the record-breaking season.

Showcasing his pristine reputation for player development and a keen eye for recruiting, Buffalo tied a school-record with 12 All-MAC selections in 2020, all of whom were recruited by Leipold. Running back Jaret Patterson led the way, rushing

Patterson was named the winner of the Vern Smith Leadership Award, given to the MVP of the MAC and was also named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year under Leipold's tutelage.

Buffalo also had 12 all-conference players in 2019, a season that culminated in the school's first-ever bowl victory – a 31-9 win over Charlotte in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl. The 2019 team featured one of the best defenses in the school's history. Buffalo ranked seventh nationally in total defense, allowing 291.9 yards per game. The Bulls were also fourth nationally against the run, allowing 94.2 yards per game.

In 2018, Buffalo won 10 games in a season for the first time ever in program history. Leipold's team went 7-1 in MAC play and won the East Division title. The Bulls also won 42-13 at Rutgers, marking the school's first-ever win over a Power 5 opponent. He was named the MAC Coach of the Year and was also a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award.

In that 2018 season, the Buffalo offense had a record-breaking season. Buffalo scored 484 points, 64 touchdowns and totaled 5,803 yards of total offense, establishing new school records in each category. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year, while Patterson earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In Leipold's third season in 2017, the Bulls gained bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. The Bulls offense averaged 432 yards per game and led the conference in passing yards per game at 291. Showing an ability for explosive plays, Buffalo produced 20 plays of 45 or more yards on the season.

Leipold became the head coach at Buffalo in December of 2014 after a triumphant career as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which saw him earn six National Coach of the Year awards. In his first season there in 2007, the Warhawks went 14-1 and won the Division III national championship. In 2008, the team made it back to the title game and fell to Mount Union.

Wisconsin-Whitewater then went 45-0 over the next three seasons, winning three straight national championships. After a 7-3 campaign in 2012, Whitewater went 30-0 combined in 2013 and 2014 winning two more national titles with Leipold at the helm.

During his time there, Warhawk players totaled 56 All-America honors, with running back Justin Beaver winning the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen won the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Running back Levell Coppage earned D3Football.com Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Cole Klotz won those honors on the defensive side.

Leipold, a native of Jefferson, Wisconsin, began his coaching career at Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin in 1991, where he served as a graduate assistant for Barry Alvarez for three seasons and helped the Badgers win a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

He then served as an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, helping the Mavericks become three-time conference champions. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, before moving on to Nebraska where he worked for Frank Solich for four seasons. He then returned to Nebraska-Omaha for three years as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator, before moving on to Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2007.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he was a standout quarterback.

Leipold and his wife Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon. Landon is a recent graduate of Free State high school and will play collegiately at the University of Nebraska-Kearney, while Lindsey is a former collegiate volleyball player at Stetson University.

Jim Zebrowski is in his fifth season at Kansas and currently serves as the Jayhawks' offensive coordinator after previously serving as the quarterbacks coach for three seasons and the co-offensive coordinator for the 2024 season.

Zebrowski has helped the Jayhawks to back-to-back bowl games for only the second time in program history, following an 8-4 record in 2023 as KU secured a winning record for the first time since 2008. Zebrowski served as Kansas' offensive coordinator in the 2023 Guaranteed Rate Bowl, in a game that the Jayhawks went for 591 yards of total offense and six touchdowns, in a 49-36 win over UNLV.

Zebrowski has mentored quarterbacks Jalon Daniels and Jason Bean to breakout campaigns, leading to Zebrowski's nomination for the Broyles Award in 2023 – awarded to the best assistant coach in college football. His leadership helped Bean step into the starting role in 2023, and led Kansas to a signature victory over No. 6 Oklahoma and road wins at Iowa State and Cincinnati this season. Kansas' offense passed for 2,672 yards this season along with 18 touchdowns and a 163.2 passing efficiency, which ranked second in the Big 12 Conference.

Both Bean and Daniels rank in the top-five in passing touchdowns in KU school history, along with ranking in the top-10 in school history in career passing yards.

In his second season at Kansas, Zebrowski mentored Daniels as he had a breakout campaign and led KU to a bowl game for the first time since 2008 and reached the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2009. Kansas started the season 5-0 and hosted ESPN's College Gameday for the first time in program history.

Daniels was a Second Team All-Big 12 selection after completing 152-of-230 (66.1 percent) passes for 2,014 yards and 18 touchdowns, while adding 425 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground. He capped off the season with a record-setting performance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, where he went 37-of-55 for 544 yards and five touchdowns, while also rushing for a touchdown.

KU's offense has also seen success with Bean under center and the duo combined to throw for 32 touchdowns to eight interceptions in 2022. Daniels passed for 18 touchdowns and 2,014 yards in 2022. Daniels' 18 touchdowns tied for the fifth most in a season in school history, while Bean's 14 touchdown passes tied for eighth. Bean was also one of just five Power 5 quarterbacks in 2022 to have back-to-back games of 250 yards passing and four touchdown passes.

A coaching veteran in the Big Ten and Mid-American Conference, Zebrowski came to Kansas with 29 years of experience, including four seasons at Buffalo as the quarterbacks coach and co-offensive coordinator. He is well known for developing young quarterbacks within the programs he works for.

In 2020, Zebrowski helped Buffalo quarterback Kyle Vantrease develop into a solid starting quarterback for the Bulls. In a season that was dominated by the run game, Vantrease was still able to shine after he threw for 353 yards and four touchdowns against Miami (OH) and 365 yards and a score against Ball State in the MAC Championship game. He became the first UB quarterback since 2014 to throw for 350+ yards twice in the same season under Zebrowski's guidance.

In 2019, Zebrowski led two different young quarterbacks to an eight-win season and helped UB earn the program's first win in a bowl game. Redshirt-freshman Matt Myers began the season as the starter before suffering a season-ending injury in the fifth game. Myers had a standout performance against Penn State, throwing for 245 yards and a touchdown. Redshirt-sophomore Kyle Vantrease started the final eight games of the season and threw for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns and ran for six additional touchdowns.

Under Zebrowski's guidance in 2018, quarterback Tyree Jackson became the first player in school history to be named Mid-American Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the first quarterback in school history to be named All-MAC. He threw for 3,131 yards and 28 touchdowns – both were second in school history for a single season.

During his first season at Buffalo in 2017, Zebrowski made an immediate impact with the Bulls. Despite an injury-riddled season that saw the Bulls have to start three different quarterbacks, Buffalo still led the MAC and set a school record with 3,490 passing yards on the year. Jackson threw for 2,096 yards and 14 touchdowns in eight games, including three 300-plus yard games. Backup Drew Anderson started against Western Michigan and threw for a school- and conference-record 597 yards and seven touchdowns.

Prior to his time at Buffalo, Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Minnesota from 2011-15 and helped lead the Gophers to three-straight bowl games. To touch on his development of young quarterbacks, he took Minnesota signal-caller Mitch Leidner from running the scout team to accounting for 2,250 yards and 21 touchdowns in 2014. Leidner had 10 rushing touchdowns, tying the school record for a quarterback.

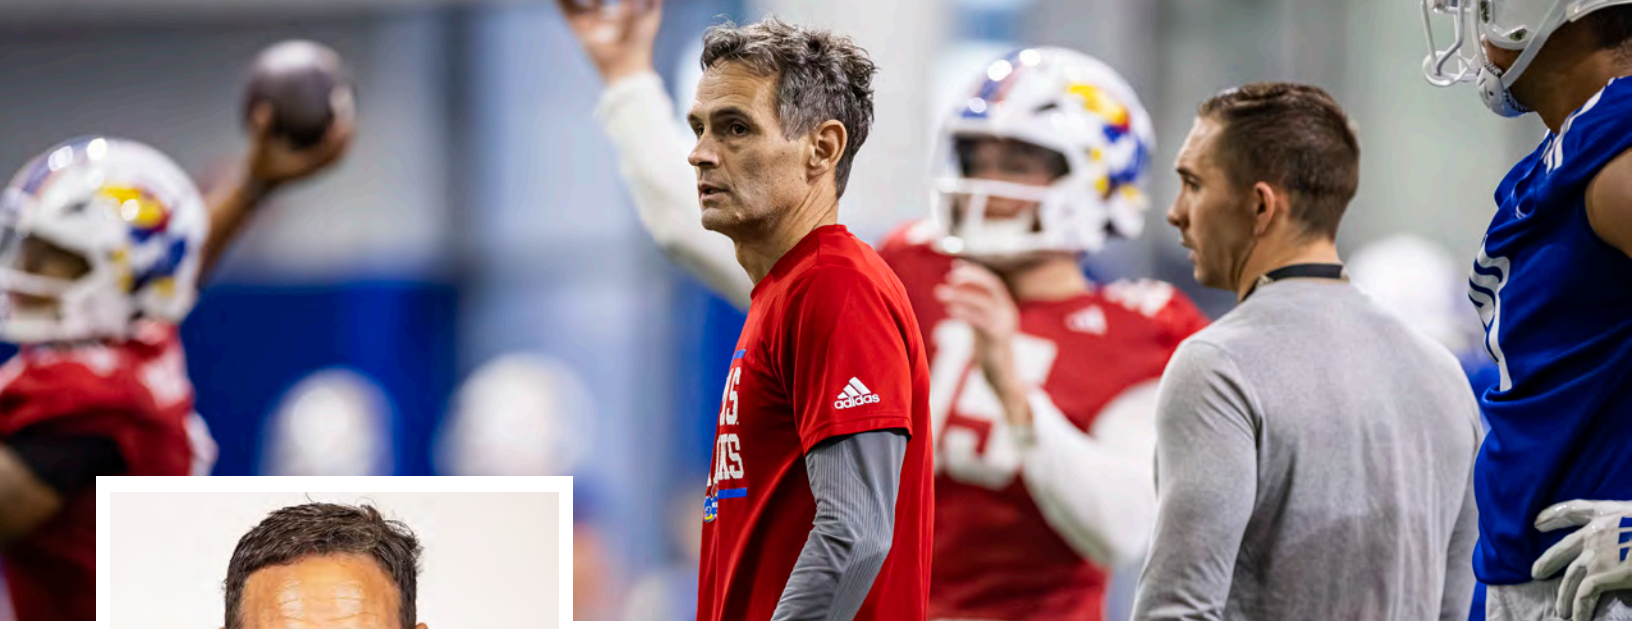
He helped lead the Gophers to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2012, the Texas Bowl in 2013 and the Citrus Bowl in 2014.

Prior to coaching at Minnesota, Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Northern Illinois in 2010. He tutored All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish, an NFL draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts. He also laid the foundation for Harnish's backup Jordan Lynch who was an All-American and a Heisman Trophy finalist in 2013. Featuring a high-powered offense that averaged over 35 points per game, Zebrowski helped lead the Huskies to the 2010 MAC Championship game and a win over Fresno State in the Humanitarian Bowl.

This is the third time Zebrowski will serve under Leipold. The first was when he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater from 2007-09. Over his tenure, the Warhawks went 42-3 and advanced to the Division III title game every year, winning it twice. Zebrowski was named the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and the FootballScoop.com Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2009. Most recently, Zebrowski served on Leipold's staff at Buffalo from 2017-2020.

In 2004, he became the head coach at Lakeland University and led the Muskies to a 28-12 record over four seasons. He led Lakeland to a pair of Illini-Badger Conference championships and advanced to the Division III playoffs for the first time in school history.

Zebrowski and his wife, Heather, who was named Female Athlete of the Year during her volleyball playing days at Southern Illinois, have two children, Zachary and Lauryn. His son, Zach, was a quarterback at Central Missouri and was the 2023 and 2024 Harlon Hill Award winner.



MATT LUBICK

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR (TE'S)

Matt Lubick joined the Kansas football staff under head coach Lance Leipold on Dec. 10, 2024 as the Jayhawks' Co-Offensive Coordinator and Tight Ends coach. Lubick, a coaching veteran of nearly 30 years, rejoins Kansas following one season as Nevada's offensive coordinator in 2024.

Lubick served as a senior offensive analyst at Kansas from 2022-23, where he helped the Jayhawk offense thrive. In 2023, Kansas ranked inside the Top 25 in rushing offense (8th), scoring offense (17th), total offense (21st) and team passing efficiency (7th).

During the 2024 season at Nevada, Lubick led the Wolfpack offense to five games with at least 400 yards of offense, including a 42-37 win over Oregon State on Oct. 12 and a 534-yard performance in a 49-16 win over Eastern Washington on Sept. 21. Nevada's offense averaged 5.9 yards per play and had the 10th highest completion percentage in the country at 67.5% in 2024. Lubick was later named Nevada's nominee for the Broyles Award, an award that honors the top assistant coach in college football.

Lubick spent the 2022 and 2023 seasons at Kansas as a senior analyst and helped Kansas to its first nine-win season and first bowl win since 2008 in 2023 and its first bowl appearance since 2008 in 2022. Prior to arriving at Kansas, Lubick served as the offensive coordinator at Nebraska (2020-21), Washington (2017-18), and Oregon (2016).

The son of longtime Colorado State head coach Sonny Lubick, Matt was a part of two Pac-12 Championship teams in Oregon in 2014 and Washington in 2018 and five teams that finished the season ranked in the top-20, including four 10-win teams. In 2014, Lubick helped Oregon rank in the top-five in scoring offense and total offense, leading the Ducks to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

In 2012, Lubick was named Football Scoop's national Receivers Coach of the Year, as well as being one of three finalists for the American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year award that same year.

A Bozeman, Montana native, Lubick began his coaching career in 1995 as a student assistant and academic supervisor at Colorado State. In the three decades since, Lubick has risen through the ranks, first becoming an offensive coordinator in 2016, overseeing an Oregon offense which set school records for passing yards (4,687), completions (326) and first downs passing (198). Oregon ranked 13th nationally in completion percentage and 15th in total offense.

In 2017, Lubick took over as the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Washington, guiding the Huskies to the 2018 Pac-12 Title, consecutive 10-win seasons and appearances in the Rose Bowl and Fiesta Bowl.

Lubick spent three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Duke from 2010 to 2012, helping the Blue Devils to a bowl game in 2012, a first for the program since 1994. Lubick was named Football Scoop's national Receivers Coach of the Year, as well as being one of three finalists for the AFCA National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

From 2007-09, Lubick served as Arizona State's defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator, leading the Sun Devils to rank among the top-20 defenses in pass efficiency defense. Lubick oversaw one top-20 recruiting class and two top-30 classes, while personally recruiting Vontaze Burfict, the highest-rated recruit in program history. Rivals named Lubick a top-10 recruiter in the then-Pac-10 Conference in each of his three years at ASU and twice Lubick was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters.

Lubick's first time coaching wide receivers at a power-conference school came at Ole Miss from 2005-06, where he was a member of Ed Orgeron's staff. Lubick coached future NFL Pro-Bowlers Dexter McCluster and Mike Wallace while in Oxford.

Prior to his stop at Ole Miss, Lubick spent four years on his father's Colorado State staff, coaching wide receivers from 2001-04. He helped the Rams to the 2002 Mountain West title and three bowl games.

Lubick was a four-year starting defensive back at Western Montana, an NAIA school located in Dillon, Montana. As a senior in 1994, Lubick earned all-conference and All-America honors. Lubick earned his degree in exercise and sports science from Colorado State in 1995.

A 22-year coaching veteran, D.K. McDonald joined the Kansas football staff as the Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs coach in February of 2024 under head coach Lance Leipold and was promoted to defensive coordinator following the 2024 season.

In his first season in Lawrence, McDonald guided a standout secondary unit that included a pair of All-Americans in Cobee Bryant and Mello Dotson. The KU cornerback duo combined for nine interceptions in 2024, earning them All-American honors and marking the first time in program history that two cornerbacks were named All-America in the same season. Both Bryant and Dotson were named First Team All-Big 12, with Bryant being picked as a unanimous selection.

Kansas' defense made strides as a whole in 2024, holding opponents to 26 points per game, the fewest points allowed since 2007 (16.4). Since 2000, Kansas' defense has allowed 26 or fewer points per game just five times (2024, 2007, 2006, 2005, 2004).

McDonald arrived in Lawrence as a distinguished defensive coach of more than 20 years, working most recently as the defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. McDonald joined the Eagles' staff in 2021, serving as an assistant defensive backs coach before being promoted in 2023.

During the 2022 campaign, when Philadelphia went 14-3 and advanced to Super Bowl LVII, McDonald helped prepare the second-ranked total defense (301.5 ypg) in the NFL. The Eagles led the league in fewest passing yards allowed per game (179.8) and finished third in opponent passer rating (81.6), fourth in interceptions (17) and fifth in passes defensed (81) as well. Furthermore, McDonald assisted the only cornerback duo in the league to produce at least 14 passes defensed and three interceptions each in 2022, as James Bradberry earned Associated Press All-Pro honors and Darius Slay was selected to the Pro Bowl. Safety C.J. Gardner-Johnson also tied for the most interceptions (six) in the NFL, despite missing five games.

In his first season in Philadelphia, McDonald aided a defense that allowed the fifth-fewest explosive plays (117) and eighth-fewest passing yards per attempt (6.8) in the NFL. Slay paced the Eagles with nine pass breakups, five takeaways, including three interceptions, and a league-leading three defensive touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl accolades.

Prior to joining Philadelphia's staff, McDonald spent five seasons at Iowa State, where he served as the pass game coordinator working with the Cyclones' safeties (2019-20) and cornerbacks (2016-18). He played an essential role in Iowa State's improvement, as the team made four straight bowl games and annually appeared in the national rankings.

In 2020, McDonald helped Iowa State rank second in the Big 12 in scoring defense (21.4 ppg) and total defense (340.4 ypg). In addition, he guided three safeties – Greg Eisworth, Lawrence White and Isheem Young – to All-Big 12 accolades. Eisworth became the first player in program history to receive first-team all-conference honors three times and Young was selected Big 12 Co-Defensive Freshman of the Year.

As the Cyclones' cornerbacks coach, McDonald coached three players to a combined five All-Big 12 honors. Brian Peavy earned first-team All-America recognition and was lauded as an all-conference performer for the fourth straight year in 2018.

From 2012-15, McDonald worked with Toledo's cornerbacks and was a part of three nine-win seasons. In 2015, he assisted a defense that led the Mid-American Conference in opponent points per game (21.1.).

McDonald coached the defensive backs at William & Mary in 2011, following a five-year tenure (2006-10) as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. With the Crimson Hawks, he tutored a pair of All-Americans and five all-conference picks, highlighted by cornerback Akwasi Owusu-Ansah.

Before working at IUP, McDonald mentored the secondary at this alma mater, Edinboro from 2003-05. During that period, he developed two All-Americans and four all-conference selections. In 2005, the Fighting Scots led the nation in scoring, rushing and total defense.

A native of Orville, Ohio, McDonald was a four-year starter at cornerback at Edinboro from 1997-2000, finishing his career with 108 tackles, 34 passes defended and four interceptions. He garnered first-team All-PSAC West honors as a junior after registering a career-high 11 passes defended.

McDonald, who graduated with a bachelor's degree in history, served as the president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and also was an Erie, Pennsylvania area representative for the organization. He and his wife, Kayla, have three daughters: Reagan, Margot and Fiona.

Chris Simpson is in his fifth season at Kansas, coaching linebackers for the Jayhawks on head coach Lance Leipold's staff.

Simpson helped the Jayhawks to back-to-back bowl games for only the second time in program history, as the 2023 season was another step forward for Kansas Football. The Jayhawks had a two-win improvement in the regular season, finishing 8-4 to secure a winning record for the first time since 2008, while the eight wins are the most by KU in the regular season since 2007.

Simpson led an experienced group of linebackers in 2024, led by captain Cornell Wheeler, JB Brown and Taiwan Berryhill, among others. Brown led the Jayhawks with 74 total tackles and 9.5 tackles-for-loss, while the Kansas defense took a step forward, allowing 26 points per game in 2024, marking the fewest points allowed since 2007 (16.4).

In 2023, Simpson's linebacker room was led by senior Rich Miller, who ranked second on the team with 56 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks, and Brown, who was close behind with 54 stops, 6.0 tackles for loss and two sacks.

In 2022, Simpson assisted as the Jayhawks qualified for a bowl game for the first time since 2008 and reached the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2009. Kansas started the season 5-0 and hosted ESPN's College Gameday for the first time in program history.

Leading his linebacker group in 2022 was Rich Miller, who ranked second on the team with 94 tackles, while also totaling three tackles for loss, one sack and one interception.

Simpson came to Kansas from Buffalo where he was on Leipold's staff for six seasons, also coaching linebackers. In 2020, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator.

Under Simpson, Buffalo linebackers were one of the most consistent units on the team. At least one linebacker has been named All-MAC in each of Simpson's six seasons at Buffalo. In 2020, Buffalo middle linebacker James Patterson was a first-team All-MAC selection after leading the team in tackles and captaining a UB squad that led the MAC in total defense. In 2019, outside linebacker Kadofi Wright was an All-MAC Third Team selection. Middle linebacker Matt Otwinowski was named Academic All-MAC for the third time in 2019. The Bulls defense finished the season ranked seventh nationally in total defense and fourth nationally in rushing defense.

Simpson helped develop Khalil Hodge, arguably the best middle linebacker to ever play at Buffalo. In only three seasons, Hodge recorded 421 tackles, the third-highest total in school history. In 2018, three of the team's four leading tacklers were linebackers, including Hodge (144), James Patterson (77) and Jordan Collier (56).

In 2017, Hodge had one of the finest seasons by a linebacker in school history. The junior middle linebacker had an FBS-era record 154 tackles on the year to lead the MAC and rank second in the nation. Hodge was named All-MAC First Team for his efforts.

In 2016, for the second-straight season, Simpson's linebackers were the top three leading tacklers on the team. Hodge had a huge season for the Bulls, finishing with 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season and the second most in Buffalo's FBS era.

In 2015, Simpson's first season, the top three tacklers on the team were linebackers and for the first time since 2008, the Bulls had two different players with more than 100 tackles as Nick Gilbo finished with 113 and Brandon Berry had 104. Berry was named All-MAC Second Team and Okezie Alozie was named third-team all-league.

Prior to Buffalo, Simpson was the outside linebackers coach at Eastern Michigan in 2014.

Before his stop at EMU, Simpson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Grand Valley State in in Allendale, Mich.. Grand Valley posted a 39-11 record and four Division II playoff victories. Simpson also tutored six All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) performers during that span.

Grand Valley closed the 2013 football campaign ranked third in the final American Football Coaches Association poll. The Lakers advanced to the NCAA DII National Semifinals for the eighth time after knocking off undefeated and No. 3 ranked Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Senior linebacker Jordan Kaufman received second team All-GLIAC honors after leading the squad in tackles with 87, while also recording eight tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and returning a blocked field goal 56 yards for a score. Also earning honorable mention league honors for GVSU were senior linebackers Charles Hill and Luther Ware.

His 2011 linebacking unit was a key component in a Laker defense that ended the year among the GLIAC leaders. GVSU led the league in tackles for loss (93) and sacks (36), while ranking second in scoring defense (20.2). GVSU limited opponents to 15.5 points per game in its last five games that season.

Simpson's linebacking unit helped the Laker defense rank nationally in several categories, including the top 20 in tackles for loss and sacks in 2010. Ware and Justin Victor earned All-GLIAC accolades during the 2010 campaign.

Simpson arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha, where he coached the defensive line. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. UWW was 42-3 his final three seasons with three-straight NCAA DIII National Championship game appearances and three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crowns. The Warhawks claimed the 2007 National Championship in Leipold's first year at the school.

In addition, Simpson coached two years (1999-2000) at Waunakee (Wis.) High School, one year (2001) at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, as a graduate assistant and one year (2002) at Wisconsin-Platteville. In the summer of 2006, Simpson was selected as a participant at the NCAA Men's Football Coaches Academy.

He also has received an NFL Minority Coaching Internship on six occasions, from the Green Bay Packers for defensive line and special teams in the summer of 2006, in 2007 with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2008 with the Carolina Panthers, in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings and Cleveland Browns and in 2013 with the Detroit Lions.

Simpson graduated with a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Whitewater in physical education in 1998. He earned his master's in curriculum and instruction in 2004.

Simpson and his wife, Nicole, have three children: Jarryn, Riley and Noah. Riley currently plays defensive back at Grand Valley State.

Daryl Agpalsa [Ag-PAWL-suh] joined the Kansas football staff in February of 2023, serving under head coach Lance Leipold.

In his first year in Lawrence, Agpalsa guided the Kansas offensive line to another strong season, as Kansas allowed just .83 sacks per game (10 total), which were the fewest allowed in the Big 12 and fourth fewest nationally. Kansas' 10 sacks allowed are the fewest by a Jayhawk team since at least 1996. Kansas' offensive line also allowed just 47 tackles for loss (3.92 per game) in 2024, ranking 13th nationally and second in the Big 12 Conference, paving the way for Kansas' all-time leading rusher in Devin Neal. Agpalsa coached three Jayhawks to All-Big 12 honors in 2024, including Logan Brown, Mike Ford and Bryce Foster.

Following the 2025 season, Kansas' Bryce Cabeldue was drafted in the sixth round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks, while Brown joined the Minnesota Vikings as an undrafted free agent.

Agpalsa joined Kansas after five seasons at Northern Illinois, where he coached the Huskies to seven All-Conference honors and appearances in the 2021 Cure Bowl and 2023 Camellia Bowl. Agpalsa served on Leipold's staff previously at Buffalo from 2014-18 and UW-Whitewater from 2012-1

In his five years at NIU, Agpalsa coached the Huskies to one of the strongest offensive line units in the MAC, which paved the way for the second-most rushing yards per game in the conference in 2023 (179.6) and allowed the fewest sacks (12) in 2022.

Agpalsa coached standout offensive lineman Nolan Potter to First Team All-MAC honors in each of the last two seasons along with Honorable Mention All-America honors in 2023.

In 2021, the Huskies finished the season with a 9-5 record, MAC Championship and an appearance in the Cure Bowl, in which the Huskies' offensive line paved the way for the fourth-best rushing offense in the country at 241.4 yards per game. NIU also allowed the second-fewest sacks in the FBS with 13 in 14 games.

Prior to NIU, Agpalsa served as the offensive line coach under Leipold at Buffalo, where he coached five All-MAC performers from 2015-18. Buffalo ranked in the top-10 in the country in fewest sacks and fewest tackles-for-loss allowed in 2018 and ranked 22nd in sacks allowed and seventh in fewest TFLs surrendered in 2017. The Bulls won 10 games and the MAC East Division in 2018 en route to an appearance in the Dollar General Bowl.

Prior to his time at Buffalo, Agpalsa spent two seasons as the offensive line coach at Division III power Wisconsin-Whitewater. During his two seasons, the Warhawks went undefeated, winning the 2013 and 2014 National Championships, and led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1 ppg), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5).

Before Whitewater, Agpalsa served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Minnesota, working primarily with the offensive line for three seasons.Agpalsa coached the offensive line at Hamline University (Minn.) for three seasons (2007-09) and was on the staff at Linfield College (Oregon), his alma mater, from 2003-06. He helped produce four all-conference offensive linemen during his time at Hamline, and 10 all-conference linemen, including two All-Americans, at Linfield, which won three straight league titles (2003, 2004, 2005) and the 2004 NCAA Division III championship.

A native of Waipahu, Hawaii, Agpalsa was a first team All-American offensive lineman at Linfield in 2002 and was named all-Northwest Conference three times. The Wildcats won three league championships in his four seasons as a starter.

He earned his bachelor's in business from Linfield in 2002 and a master's degree in education (applied kinesiology and sport management) from Minnesota in 2012.

Agpalsa and his wife Ali have two daughters, Addison and Hailey, and a son, Noa.

Taiwo Onatolu [On-uh-toe-lou] is in his fourth season as an assistant coach at Kansas and fifth on the Jayhawks' staff in 2025. He works with the defensive ends and special teams under head coach Lance Leipold.

Onatolu has tutored four players who have earned All-Big 12 recognition at Kansas, including 2023 Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year Austin Booker. Booker, who was also an All-Big 12 First Team selection, ranked third in the league in sacks and sixth in tackles for loss. Jereme Robinson also received honorable mention honors in 2023 and 2024 and Lonnie Phelps Jr., was an All-Big 12 Second Team selection in 2022 before joining the Cleveland Browns as an undrafted free agent following the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2024, Onatolu coached Dean Miller to a breakout season, in which Miller led the Jayhawks with 6.0 sacks and 9.5 tackles-for-loss. Miller's 6.0 sacks were the fifth-most in the Big 12 Conference, while the Kansas defense combined for 28 sacks in 2024, which were the most in a season since the 2016 season. Kansas finished the season ranked third in the Big 12 Conference in sacks per game (2.33).

The 2023 season was another step forward for Kansas Football as the Jayhawks had a two-win improvement in the regular season, finishing 8-4 to secure a winning record for the first time since 2008. The eight wins are the most by KU in the regular season since 2007 and the Jayhawks have claimed consecutive bowl berths for only the second time in program history.

In his first season as an on-field assistant coach, Onatolu assisted as the Jayhawks qualified for a bowl game for the first time since 2008 and reached the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2009. Kansas started the season 5-0 and hosted ESPN's College Gameday for the first time in program history. That season, he tutored All-Big 12 Second Team selection Lonnie Phelps, Jr., who finished the season with 11.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks with six quarterback hurries.

Onatolu spent the 2021 season as an analyst on the Jayhawks' staff, before being promoted to an assistant coach in 2021. Onatolu previously worked at Buffalo as the defensive ends coach for three seasons and the cornerbacks coach for four seasons. While with the Bulls, he also coaches the specialists and had a stint as the director of player personnel.

During the 2020 season, Onatolu guided UB's defensive ends to record 12.5 of UB's 20 sacks to lead the MAC. Malcolm Koonce led the way with five sacks en route to earning All-MAC First Team honors for the second-straight season.

Under the guidance from Onatolu, the defensive unit was one of UB's strongest in 2019 as UB players ranked 1-2-3 in the MAC in sacks on the season behind Malcolm Koonce's (9), Taylor Riggins' (8.5) and Ledarius Mack's (8) stellar seasons. Koonce and Riggins were named to the All-MAC First Team and Mack was a second-team selection. Defensive ends accounted for 27.5 of the school-record 43 sacks the Bulls registered in 2019.

In 2018, Buffalo ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense, allowing 194 yards passing per game. The Bulls recorded 14 interceptions, eight of which came from cornerbacks. Cameron Lewis was named All-MAC Second Team after posting three interceptions and six pass breakups on the year.

While working with the corners, Onatolu helped lead Buffalo to be ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense in 2017, allowing 205 yards per game and added eight interceptions. In 2016, UB's defense led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense – allowing 181.5 yards per game.

Prior to his stint at Buffalo, Onatolu spent five seasons at Missouri State working as an inside linebackers coach. In his first season at Missouri State in 2011, guided senior in David Ingram and a redshirt freshman in Andrew Beisel to outstanding seasons. Beisel went on to record a team-high 84 tackles, becoming the first MSU freshman since 1998 to lead the team in total stops and earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team distinctions. Ingram, who started all 11 games, tallied 77 tackles and finished third on the squad.

In 2012, Onatolu used five different starters in his rotation, including Beisel who led all middle linebackers with 73 stops in 10 games. Redshirt sophomore Christian Hoffmann brought down 41 ball carriers with five starts in an impressive debut campaign.
It was Beisel and Hoffmann who led Onatolu's inside backers again in 2013. Beisel tallied 96 stops while starting 12 games and earned All-MVFC honorable mention honors his junior campaign, while Hoffman earned nine starts with 36 stops. The tandem helped MSU rank among the national leaders in red zone defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and passing defense, while ranking as one of the top defensive units in the MVFC.

A native of Papillion, NE, Onatolu served as an assistant at his alma mater from 2007-10 at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

As a student-athlete, Onatolu was a standout linebacker at UNO, starting four seasons for the Mavericks, earning All-NCC First Team honors three times and All-America First Team honors in 2004. He was the North Central Conference's Most Valuable Linebacker in 2004 after posting 98 tackles and five interceptions. He was in on 71 tackles as a senior, helping him earn All-America second and third-team honors by different agencies.

Onatolu finished his four-year stint at ONU as the program's No. 2 all-time tackler with 371 total stops. He also tallied 46.5 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks, seven interceptions and 182 solo tackles in 44 games. He helped the Mavericks to a pair of NCC titles and a 2005 playoff appearance.

After completing his degree in communications, public affairs and community service from UNO in 2006, Onatolu stayed at UNO for two years as a graduate assistant coach, working with the team's linebackers.

Onatolu has a twin brother, Kenny, who has enjoyed a professional career that began with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League and included stints with the Minnesota Vikings and Carolina Panthers. He was also an All-NCC linebacker.

Onatolu and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Isaiah and Tytus.

JIM PANAGOS
ASSISTANT COACH (DT'S)

Jim Panagos is in his fourth season as the defensive tackles coach at Kansas after joining Lance Leipold's staff on February 1, 2022.

The 2023 season was another step forward for Kansas Football as the Jayhawks had a two-win improvement in the regular season, finishing 8-4 to secure a winning record for the first time since 2008. The eight wins are the most by KU in the regular season since 2007 and the Jayhawks have claimed consecutive bowl berths for only the second time in program history.

In his first season at Kansas, Panagos assisted as the Jayhawks qualified for a bowl game for the first time since 2008 and reached the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2009. Kansas started the season 5-0 and hosted ESPN's College Gameday for the first time in program history.

His veteran group finished with 9.0 sacks and 22.5 tackles for loss on the season. Following the year, Caleb Sampson signed as an undrafted free agent with the NFL's Indianapolis Colts.

Panagos came to Kansas with more than 20 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience. He spent the past two seasons at Rutgers, coaching the defensive line. He has also coached the defensive line at Minnesota, Temple and UCF, in addition to spending four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings.

The 2009 FootballScoop National Defensive Line Coach of the Year and a former Broyles Award nominee, Panagos has coached more than 20 future NFL players during his time as a college coach.

In 2020 at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally in tackles-for-loss per game at 7.8. Three Rutgers defensive linemen earned honorable mention All-Big Ten in Michael Dwumfour, Julius Turner and Mike Tverdov. The Rutgers defense also forced 19 turnovers, which marked the program's most in a season since 2012. This past season, Turner earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors again as the Rutgers defense totaled 73 tackles-for-loss.

Panagos spent the 2019 season at Minnesota, helping the Gophers to a 10-2 record and a spot in the Outback Bowl. Prior to that, the veteran defensive line coach spent two seasons at Temple, first as the defensive line coach and the second as the assistant head coach/run game coordinator. In 2018, Panagos helped the Temple defense rank among the top three nationally in defensive touchdowns, forced turnovers and fumble recoveries. The Owls also ranked second in the American Athletic Conference in total defense, passing defense and three-and-outs.

In 2017, Panagos earned a nomination for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach annually. That season, the Owls recorded 39 sacks and 92 tackles-for-

Terrence Samuel is in his fourth season as the wide receivers coach at Kansas after joining the staff of Lance Leipold in December 2021.

Since joining the Jayhawks, Samuel has coached Kansas' wide receivers unit to new heights as Samuel coached three Jayhawks (Luke Grimm, Lawrence Arnold, Quentin Skinner) into the top-20 in Kansas career receiving yards. In 2024, Grimm finished out his Kansas career ranking second in career receiving touchdowns (23) and third in career receiving yards (2,472).

Samuel helped the Jayhawks to back-to-back bowl games for only the second time in program history, as the 2023 season was another step forward for Kansas Football. The Jayhawks had a two-win improvement in the regular season, finishing 8-4 to secure a winning record for the first time since 2008, while the eight wins are the most by KU in the regular season since 2007.

Kansas had the No. 4 scoring offense and No 7 total offense in the Big 12 in 2023, with six different wide receivers combining for 11 touchdown receptions. Two of KU's veteran receivers – Lawrence Arnold and Luke Grimm – have also moved into the top 10 of multiple career categories at Kansas, including receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns.

In his first season in Lawrence, Samuel assisted as the Jayhawks qualified for a bowl game for the first time since 2008 and reached the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2009. Kansas started the season 5-0 and hosted ESPN's College Gameday for the first time in program history. KU's offense had the third-highest scoring average in school history in 2022, averaging 35.6 points per game. The Jayhawks averaged 254.4 yards per game through the air, with wide receivers accounting for 144 receptions for more than 2,000 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Samuel came to Kansas with 24 years of college football coaching experience, serving most recently as the wide receivers coach at Syracuse, and has also spent time at Michigan State, UNLV, Central Michigan, Arizona, North Dakota State, Southeast Missouri State and Nebraska-Omaha, where he worked alongside Leipold.

While at Syracuse, Samuel oversaw a young Syracuse receivers room, whose top three pass catchers were all freshmen or sophomores. The team's leading receiver, redshirt freshman Courtney Jackson, had his best game in his final game, catching eight passes for 92 yards and two touchdowns.

Samuel spent the 2020 season at UNLV, where the Rebels played just six games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In that one season, receiver Kyle Williams set the program record with 5.8 receptions per game and went on to earn freshman All-America honors and was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Year.

Prior to his one season at UNLV, Samuel spent nine seasons at Michigan State. During his time with the Spartans, Samuel mentored two Big 10 Receivers of the Year in Tony Lippett (2014) and Aaron Burbridge (2015), while his receivers garnered All-Big Ten recognition eight times. Samuel also helped produce five NFL draft picks and another six players who made active NFL rosters.

Lippett and Burbridge were both first-team all-conference selections while B.J. Cunningham, R.J. Shelton and Felton Davis III all earned second-team honors under Samuel's tutelage. Cunningham, Lippett and Burbridge were all draft picks as was Keshawn Martin (2012) and Keith Mumphrey (2015). In addition, Bennie Fowler played six seasons in the NFL as an undrafted free agent.

From Houston, Texas, Samuel was a part of eight bowl teams during his nine seasons with Michigan State. The Spartans earned trips to two New Year's Six bowls (Rose Bowl and Cotton Bowl) and a trip to the College Football Playoff in 2015, in addition to an Outback Bowl appearance and a Holiday Bowl appearance, among others.

Before spending nearly a decade at Michigan State, Samuel spent the 2010 season at Central Michigan. During that season with the Chippewas, wide receiver Cody Wilson recorded just the sixth 1,000-yard season in program history, tallying 83 receptions for 1,137 yards.

Samuel spent two seasons at North Dakota State from 2008-09, prior to his time at Central Michigan. In 2007, Samuel served as the offensive coordinator at Nebraska-Omaha, where he took over for Leipold, who served in that role for the previous three seasons. During that 2007 season, the Mavericks won a conference championship and posted a 10-1 record.

Samuel's time at Nebraska-Omaha in 2007 was his third time on staff there as he also served as the defensive backs coach in 2003 and 2004 and the outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator in 2005. Leipold was on staff for two of those seasons on the other side of the ball. Samuel was also a graduate assistant there from 1998-2000, in addition to serving as a graduate assistant at Arizona in 2001 and 2002.

Samuel is a 1995 graduate of Purdue, where he was a four-year letter winner for the Boilermakers. He was awarded the 1994 Kiwanis Citizenship Award, which is presented to a Purdue player who excels most in the combined roles of player, student and community volunteer.

He has a wife, Jaclyn, a daughter, Brooklyn and a son, Draven.

FIRST TEAM AP ALL-AMERICANS

RAY EVANS - 1947 ALL-AMERICAN

Ray Evans, KU's first All-America selection (along with Otto Schnellbacher), qualifies as one of the greatest athletes in Kansas history.

Evans is the only player in NCAA history to lead the nation in both passing (1,117 yards) and interceptions (10) in the same season (1942). His single-season interception mark, in fact, still remains a KU record. In addition to being an All-American in football, Evans was also a two-time selection as a Helms Foundation basketball All-American for head coach Phog Allen.

He is the only athlete in KU history to have both his football jersey number (42) and basketball jersey (15) retired. Evans was a key performer in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-1-2 record, a first-place tie in the Big Six Conference and a spot in the 1948 Orange Bowl his senior season. Evans once owned the NCAA record of consecutive passing attempts (60) without an interception. He played professionally for one season with Pittsburgh.

OTTO SCHNELLBACHER - 1947 ALL-AMERICAN

Known as the "Double Threat from Sublette," Otto Schnellbacher excelled during his days as an athlete at Kansas in both football and basketball. Schnellbacher served as a co-captain of the 1947 Jayhawk team that won a share of the conference title and earned a spot in the Orange Bowl.

He is one of just three KU athletes to serve as a captain in both football and basketball. A two-time All-Big Six selection, Schnellbacher was credited with 58 career pass receptions for 1,069 yards and both marks stood as school records for 22 years. He averaged 18.4 yards per reception. Schnellbacher was a regular in 1942 and had his career put on hold during World War II. A four-time all-conference selection in basketball, Schnellbacher played both football and basketball professionally. He played football for four seasons with the New York Yankees of the All-America Football Conference and the New York Giants of the NFL. He intercepted 34 passes and was named All-Pro defensive back three times before retiring after the 1951 season.

GEORGE MRKONIC - 1951 ALL-AMERICAN

Mrkonic, a two-time (1950-51) all-conference selection, played left guard on offense and defensive tackle. Mrkonic also handled punting duties during his KU career and led the Jayhawks in punting statistics in 1951.

During his three years in the lineup, Kansas compiled a combined 21-9 record, including an 8-2 mark in 1951 and 7-3 record in 1952. Mrkonic was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game in 1952 and had a brief stint in professional football as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He also played one season in the Canadian Football League.

OLIVER SPENCER - 1952 ALL-AMERICAN

A dominating blocker and outstanding athlete, Spencer and teammate George Mrkonic were recognized as two of college football's premier linemen during the early 1950s. Spencer excelled at right offensive tackle, helping the Jayhawks to a combined 15-5 mark during his two seasons as a regular on the offensive front.

As a sophomore, Spencer was a backup at KU behind future pro football hall of famer Mike McCormack. Following his senior season, Spencer was selected to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl.

He played in the National Football League for the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers from 1953-61, and served as an offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders for 19 seasons (1962-79).

GIL REICH - 1952 ALL-AMERICAN

Although he played just one season at Kansas after transferring from the United States Military Academy, Gil Reich quickly established himself as one of the most determined performers in Jayhawk history.

He was a standout as a cornerback, excelling in run support and as a punt returner. Reich earned all-conference and All-America honors for his performance as a defensive back. In addition, Reich split time as the starting quarterback with Jerry Robertson. He accounted for 428 yards in total offense and was credited with five touchdown passes. He averaged 17.2 yards on 19 punt returns and also served as the Jayhawks' punter and kicked extra points.

Reich was also a two-sport standout, playing a significant role on the Jayhawks' 1952-53 basketball team. As a starting guard, Reich helped direct the Jayhawks to the 1953 National Championship game -- a 69-68 loss to Indiana.

JOHN HADL - 1960-61 ALL-AMERICAN

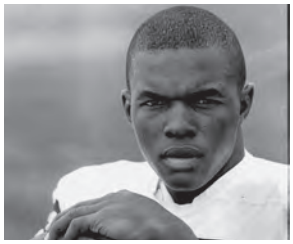
John Hadl easily represents one of the greatest all-around performers in Kansas history. The Jayhawks' first two-time All-America selection, Hadl excelled in the Jayhawk offense as a quarterback and part-time halfback.

He was also a highly effective defensive back, return specialist and one of the nation's top punters during his three-year career. His jersey No. 21 is one of just three retired in Kansas football history. A three-time all-conference selection, Hadl ended his career with 1,281 yards passing and 1,016 yards rushing. He still holds the school record for longest punt (94 yards vs. Oklahoma in 1959, third-longest in NCAA history) and has the third-longest interception return (98 yards vs. TCU in 1959).

Hadl, who led the nation in punting in 1959 with a 45.6 average, was a standout on some of KU's great teams. The Jayhawks were a combined 14-5-2 his junior and senior seasons with Hadl at the controls and ranked nationally in the top 20 each season. He concluded his senior season by leading KU to a 33-7 win over Rice in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Hadl was named Most Valuable Player in the East-West Shrine game and the College All-Star Game.

Hadl enjoyed a 16-year career in the NFL, passing for 33,513 yards. He was recognized as the NFL Man of the Year in 1971 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994. Following a successful career in coaching, Hadl moved into administration and currently serves as an associate athletics director at his alma mater.

FIRST TEAM AP ALL-AMERICANS



GALE SAYERS - 1963-64 ALL-AMERICAN

Gale Sayers, the "Kansas Comet," established himself in his collegiate and professional career as one of the great running backs in the history of football. A two-time All-America selection for the Jayhawks, Sayers concluded his KU career with 2,675 yards rushing and 3,917 all-purpose yards. Sayers led KU in rushing, touchdowns and kickoff returns all three years he was in the lineup. He also led the team in receiving and punt returns as a junior and senior. Sayers became the first player in NCAA Division IA history to record a 99-yard run when he broke loose against Nebraska in Lincoln during the 1963 season. He also had a 96-yard kickoff return in a 15-14 upset of Oklahoma his senior season.

Sayers was a first-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears (and Kansas City Chiefs) and had an abbreviated seven-year NFL career that was cut short by a knee injury. He led the league in rushing in 1966 and 1969. He retired in 1972 with a career total of 4,956 rushing yards. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977 at age 34, the youngest person

BOBBY DOUGLASS - 1968 ALL-AMERICAN

Twice selected All-Big Eight Conference (1967-68), Douglass was named to both the United Press International (UPI) and Kodak All-America teams in 1968. In his senior season, Douglass directed the Pepper Rodgers-coached Jayhawks to a 9-2 record, a share of the Big Eight Conference title and a spot in the 1969 Orange Bowl. He passed for 1,316 yards and 12 touchdowns his final year as a Jayhawk. He threw for touchdowns in six-consecutive games in 1968 which represented a school record. He ranks eighth all-time in career passing yardage with 2,817 yards.

His 3,832 yards in total offense qualifies as the 10th-best mark in KU history and he was responsible for 39 touchdowns during his career, a mark that ranks sixth on KU's all-time listing. Douglass was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, American Bowl and the College All-Star game in Chicago following his senior season. He earned Most Valuable Player honors in the American Bowl. Douglass played professionally in the NFL for 13 years with Chicago, San Diego, New Orleans and Green Bay.

JOHN ZOOK - 1968 ALL-AMERICAN

A three-year letterman and two-time All-Big Eight Conference selection, John Zook anchored one of the top defensive units in Kansas football history.

Zook earned All-America honors in 1968 as the defensive standout on a Kansas team that finished with a 9-2 record, shared the conference championship and faced Penn State in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks were ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll -- Zook's senior season.

He finished his career with 202 total tackles, which ranks as the fourth-best mark among defensive linemen in school history.

"He never played but full speed from snap one to snap 100. He was the most full-speed player on every snap that you could imagine," said Pepper Rodgers.

DAVID JAYNES - 1973 ALL-AMERICAN

David Jaynes brought a lethal arm to the Kansas offense in the early 1970s and broke virtually every season and career passing mark in the Jayhawk record book. A highly recruited high school quarterback at nearby Bonner Springs, Jaynes concluded his career ranked No. 1 all-time in passing yardage (a mark later broken by Frank Seurer) with 5,132 yards. His 35-career passing touchdowns stood as a school record for 34 years.

Jaynes, who earned All-America honors in 1973, had his greatest game as a senior in 1973 with a school-record performance against Tennessee in Knoxville. Jaynes connected on 35-of-58 attempts for 394 yards. "I've never seen him have a better day in his life," said then-head coach Don Fambrough. Jaynes directed the Jayhawks to a 7-4-1 record his senior year, including a trip to the Liberty Bowl. Jaynes, who led KU in passing for three-consecutive seasons, finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1973.

BRUCE KALLMEYER - 1993 ALL-AMERICAN

Bruce Kallmeyer is regarded as one of the most potent offensive weapons in Kansas history thanks to his talents as a placekicker. Kallmeyer concluded his four-year Jayhawk career with single-season marks of field goals made (24), attempted (29) and ranks first all-time in career field goal percentage (77.9). Kallmeyer also established new standards in the Kansas record book for most field goals in a game (five) which he recorded twice in his career, against Nebraska in 1981 and Wichita State in 1983. Kallmeyer also had four field goals in the Jayhawks' upset win over Southern California in 1983.

Kallmeyer, who had a career-long 57-yard field goal against Iowa State as a senior, ranks fourth all-time in scoring with 233 points. His 98 points in 1983 qualifies as the third-best single-season mark in KU history and his 21 points against Wichita State in the same season represents the most single-game points by a KU kicker in history.

ANTHONY COLLINS - 2007 ALL-AMERICAN

Big, strong, and fast, Anthony Collins became one of the nation's premier offensive linemen in his junior season, his final year at Kansas before declaring early for the NFL Draft. The 6-6, 310-pounder was named All-America First Team by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football Writer's Association of America, among others, in 2007.

The Beaumont, Texas native was also one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy given to the nation's top interior linemen. Collins helped pave the way for consecutive 1,000-yard rushers in Jon Cornish and Brandon McAnderson during his last two years, while anchoring an offensive unit that was among the nation's most productive his junior year. Collins played both right and left tackle during his career. He earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors as a sophomore at right tackle and then was named an All-Big 12 First Team pick as a junior after switching to the left side. He was drafted in the fourth round by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2008.

AQIB TALIB - 2007 ALL-AMERICAN

A versatile performer, Aqib Talib capped off his Kansas career by being named a consensus All-America selection after his junior season. In that junior campaign he helped lead the Jayhawks to a 12-1 record, a regular season national ranking of second and a FedEx Orange Bowl victory. A tremendous cornerback, Talib led the country in passes defended as a sophomore with 28 and then recorded 18 more the following season.

He finished his career with 13 interceptions, second all-time at KU, and added 45 passes broken up despite leaving for the NFL after his junior season. He also recorded 66 tackles as a junior as he was the Jack Tatum Award winner, a Bronko Nagurski finalist, a Jim Thorpe semifinalist and a Walter Camp watch list selection in addition to his All-America honors in 2007. Not only did Talib excel on the defensive side of the football, he saw action as a wide receiver as well. In 2007 he caught eight passes for 182 yards and four touchdowns, giving him five touchdowns on nine career receptions. In his final game at KU he was named the MVP of the FedEx Orange Bowl. He was drafted 20th overall by Tampa Bay in the 2008 NFL Draft after his junior campaign.

MIAMI – Their hopes blasted by a heartbreaking last-minute fumble by Quarterback Lynne McNutt, the Kansas Jayhawkers bowed to the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets 14 to 20 in a spectacular grid battle in Miami's Orange Bowl this afternoon.

Faced with a 6-point deficit, Kansas recovered a fumble on the Tech 44 and moved to the 23-yard line where McNutt pitched to Otto Schnellbacher who raced down the sideline for what looked like a touchdown. The officials ruled the Jayhawker end stepped out of bounds on the 10, however, and All-America Ray Evans plunged to the two. The fateful fumble occurred on the next play with a minute and 10 seconds to go and Tech stalled until the final gun.

First Quarter

Georgia Tech won the toss and elected to receive. Matthews took Evans' kickoff on the goal line and returned to the 21. Tech lost 9 yards in two plays and Williams' partially blocked punt was taken by Evans on the 45 and returned to the 40. Kansas lost three yards in three tries and Pattee was thrown on the 40 yard-line trying to run on a fourth down bad pass from center.

Tech chalked up a first down in two running plays and an 8-yard pass. Still to Castleberry, on the Kansas 37, Kansas held and Bowen punted into the end zone. Pattee skirted right end for four yards and Evans picked up a first down on the 36 with a 12-yard plunge thru center. Kansas lost two yards on a running play and two passes and Pattee punted out 40 yards to Petit on the Tech 26 from where the ball was returned to the 35. Three plays failed to produce a first down and Williams booted a 58-yard punt out of bounds on the Kansas 4 yard line. The Jayhawkers picked up four yards and Scott punted out to Petit who was nailed on the Kansas 47. Tech picked up a first down, but K.U. stiffened as the first quarter ended.

Second Quarter

Kansas smeared Mathews for a 10 yard loss and Williams punted to the Kansas 6. Bertuzzi and Evans drove to the 15 and Pattee punted 40 yards to the Tech 45. Tech lost three yards and Williams punted to Evans who returned to the 12. Kansas was penalized to the one-half yard line. Patee punted to Mathews who returned to the Kansas 26. After a futile line plunge and an incomplete pass, Still rifled to Patton for the first touchdown of the game. Bowen's try for extra point was good and Tech led 7 to 0.

French took the kickoff and raced it back 20 yards to the Kansas 35. Evans pitched to Schnellbacher for 18 yards. Griffith slashed a 12 yard path around left end for 12 yards. Evans skirted right end for five. Griffith tucked in 6 yards in two plunges and Hogan rifled 17 yards to French. Taking a hand-off from Hogan, all-American Evans ripped the center of the Tech line for 13 yards and a Kansas touchdown. Fambrough's try for extra point was good, knotting the score at 7 all. Petit took Evans kickoff and returned to the 12. Checked for a 3-yard gain, Williams botted to Scott who returned to the Tech 45. Kansas gained 1 yard in 3 tries and Pattee kicked out on the Tech 20. Tech lost two yards and Still punted out on the Kansas 46. Evans faded to pass and lost 11 yards. A Hogan to Schnellbacher pass was incomplete, and Schmidt caught a pitch from Evans out of bounds, but got a first down on the Tech 43 on an interference penalty. Griffith and Evans plunged for 16 yards in three plays as the half ended. Score, Kansas 7, Georgia Tech 7.

Third Quarter

McCoy returned Evans kickoff to the Tech 15. Sparked by Still's perfect pitches, Tech moved to the Kansas 15 where Still rifled to Queen who went over for the second touchdown. Bowen's try for extra point was good and Tech went out in front 14 to 7. Evans took Jordan's long kickoff boot in the end zone and returned to the Kansas 20. Kansas was held for two yards and Pattee booted out to Mathews who stopped at the Tech 40. Bowen and McCoy ran for 9 yards and Still pitched a long pass to Jordan who went over the goal line, but the gain was nullified by in off sides penalty.

Williams punted out on the Kansas 21. Evans hit center for 4 but Scott's pass was intercepted by Smith on the K.U. 35. On 5 running plays and a 12-yard toss from Still to Broadnax, Tech moved to the Kansas 4 where Still passed to Patton who outran Schnellbacher for the third marker. Bowen's try for the extra point was wide. Griffith caught Jordan's kickoff and ran back to the 20. Evans failed on two pass attempts to Schnellbacher and McNutt and then heaved a 34-yard toss to End Bryan Sperry who made a great catch the closely guarded. Score Georgia Tech 20, Kansas 7.

Fourth Quarter

Kansas gained a yard and Scott punted into the end zone. Tech got and automatic first down on a holding penalty, but failed to gain and Williams punted to Hogan on the Kansas 44. Scott smashed center for 3 yards, Hogan passed to Sperry for seven yards. Pattee gained ten yards and Hogan passed to Pattee for 8. Kansas picked up five yards and Hogan rifled a pass to Sperry who was thrown on the Tech 12. Scott dropped a backward pass for a 6-yard loss. Tech was penalized five yards and All-America Ray Evans took a 13-yard pass from Hogan for a touchdown. Bowen hit center for 2. Queen broke loose but fumbled and K.U. recovered on Tech 42. French and Evans made five to the 42 after a delay penalty on Kansas. McNutt passed to Schnellbacher who was ruled out on Tech 10. Evans hit center for 8. The Yellow Jackets were penalized to the one. McNutt fumbled and Tech recovered on the two. Georgia Tech froze the ball the remaining minute with the quarterback holding the ball.

The bowl spectacle got under way at 2 p.m. when bands from the University of Kansas, Miami and other surrounding communities massed on the playing field to play the national anthem. Under a clear sky with temperatures in the upper 70's, the 60,000 fans packed into the huge bowl let out a great cheer as the music ended and the game got underway.

HOUSTON – Kansas ran Rice University ragged with double reverses and the power of Ken Coleman Saturday as the Jayhawks crushed the favored Owls 33-7 in the third annual Bluebonnet Bowl football game.

Coleman, a 201 pound sophomore, scored twice while grinding out 107 yards in 18 carries. Roger McFarland got two more on neatly executed double reverses. John Hadl, who Friday denied charges he had signed a pro contract, directed all five Kansas scoring drives and. set up one of Coleman's touchdowns: with a 41 yard scamper on a faked fourth down punt.

Immediately after the game, a scout for the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League met Hadl under the south goalpost and signed the Kansas star to a 1962 contract.

Rice took a brief 7-0 lead with 6 yard drive late in the first period, but Hadl's beautiful run fed the Kansas comeback and the Owls made only one other serious threat.

A light rain that fell throughout the nationally televised game cut attendance at the 70,000-seat Rice Stadium to 52,000. Bluebonnet officials, however, said that 61,000 tickets had been sold.

Rice had been favored by 3 points to score its fifth victory in seven postseason bowl games. Kansas was making its first bowl appearance since losing to Georgia Tech 14-20 in the 1948 Orange Bowl.

Coleman was voted the game's most outstanding back. Elvin Basham, chunky Kansas guard was the outstanding lineman.

Rice's touchdown came on a five-yard pass from Randy Kerbow to Johnny Burrell.

The Kansas scoring drives covered 59, 65, 50, 36 and 69 yards. After Coleman had scored the first two touchdowns, Curtis McClinton ran the Jayhawk lead to 19-7 by carrying over from the four.

McFarland's touchdown runs caught Rice flatfooted and covered 9 and 12 yards each. Hadl, who completed seven of 10 passes for 64 yards, started the first Kansas drive with a 14 yard pass to McFarland. Coleman then took over and moved 32 yards to the Rice four in four carries.

Gary Poage started Rice toward its only score with a 21 yard run to the Kansas 48. Kerbow passed 11 yards to Burrell and Butch Blume put the Owls within striking distance with an: 18-yard run to the 12. Blume also kicked the extra point.

Hadl's 41-yard run carried to the Rice 19 midway in the second period. On the next play Coleman ran over three Rice defenders while powering 18 yards to the one. He plunged over on the next play. In the last 28 seconds of the half, Kerbow completed three passes that moved Rice 61 yards. Bob Wayt caught a 35-yarder at the Kansas five as the halftime gun sounded.

Coleman and McFarland accounted for all but McClinton's four yard touchdown run on the 50-yard drive.

Late in the period, Fred Eisman recovered a Rice fumble at the Owl 36 and McFarland got his first double reverse six-pointer 11 plays later. A 13-yard pass from Hadl to Tony Leiker moved it to the 14, the only pass of the drive.

Kansas stayed on the ground all the way on its final drive, with Coleman contributing 21 of the 69 yards in four carries.

Kansas quarterback John Hadl on his memory of the 1961 bowl game:
"On a fourth down, I faked a punt and ran (41 yards to the Rice 19-yardline) right before the half. That turned the momentum around and we were able to beat them. After the game I signed my contract with the San Diego Chargers under the goalpost." Kansas quarterback John

Hadl on his favorite moments of the 1961 bowl game:
"After the game I signed my contract with the San Diego Chargers under the goalpost, so I remember that. What was funny was that Curtis McClinton signed his too (with the Dallas Texans – now the Kansas City Chiefs). He had a bonus check with him coming off the field, and he accidentally stuck the check in the locker next to his, thinking it was his locker. He went crazy looking for that check. I think it was 10 grand at the time. I remember that clearly because everybody in the locker room was looking for that check."

MIAMI – Penn State, getting life when Kansas had 12 men on the field during a two-point conversion attempt, converted the extra try into a 15-14 victory over KU in the 35th Orange Bowl football classic.

Kansas forced Penn State to punt with 2:04 left in the game. The Jayhawks needed to run out the clock to earn the victory. They couldn't do it. Twice 204-pound tackle Mike Reid threw KU quarterback Bobby Douglass for loses and, with fourth and 23, the Jays were forced to punt.

Kicker Billy Bell's punt was deflected by safety Neal Smith and rolled dead at the 50. Only 1:16 remained. Penn State wasted no time. Quarterback Chuck Burkhart lofted the ball high to halfback Bob Campbell who caught it in front of Tommy Anderson and rambled to the three before the KU safety could bring him down. Twice fullback Tom Cherry tried to rip up the middle, but was stopped successively by Dave Morgan and Pat Hutchens. Then Burkhart kept the ball, sweeping around left end for the touchdown that made it 14-13. Just 15 seconds were left. It was two-point conversion time and Burkhart swept to his right, flung the ball to Campbell and watched as Anderson and Dave Morgan batted the pass away for what looked like a thrilling climax to a KU victory.

Hardly a jubilant Kansas fan saw and official wave a red flag. The Jays had 12 men on the field and were charged with illegal procedure. It was like being handed a million dollars, then discovering it was counterfeit money. Seconds later, the two teams lined up again and Burkhart sent Campbell roaring to the end zone to give an Eastern team its first Orange Bowl victory in nine tries. It was a finish as one person said, that will go down in history and be debated for as long as they play football. It also dulled Kansas' finest defensive effort of the season. In the first half, the Jayhawks gave up twice as many first downs and twice as much total yardage as the Nittany Lions. But, in the clutch Kansas defenders had it.

Four Penn State errors kept the Jays alive while they tried to get something going offensively. Micky Doyle's interceptionthe only one of the year for the senior linebackerstopped an early PSU drive. Just minutes later, linebacker sidekick Emery Hicks covered a Don Abbey fumble at the KU 35. Both times, however, the Jayhawks couldn't get going. Finally, still in the first quarter another linebackerthis time Pat Hutchensswiped a Burkhart aerial and it led to a score. Gobbling up 45 yards in nine plays Mike Reeves bulled in from the two with 3:08 left until the second stanza. The Jays stayed on the ground in the drive. Fullback John Riggins ripped off the longest gain12 yards. Donnie Shanklin, the miniature 168-pound tailback who was the be named most valuable player in the game, produced two runs good for 15 yards. For Reeves, who alternated at fullback with John Riggins much of the year, it was ironically his only score of the season.

Unable to move early in the second quarter, Bell punted from the 12 and PSU started from the KU 47. Just six plays later, the Lions pushed over to knot the count at 7-7. Speedster halfback Charlie Pittman stormed up the middle for the last 13 practically untouched with 11:08 until halftime. A 42-yard pass from Douglass to Shanklin carried KU to the Penn State 35 on the next series of downs, but the drive petered out as Mike Reid and Steve Smear, the other tackle, dropped Douglass for a four-yard loss and Shanklin for a five-yard setback. After an exchange of punts Douglass passed from his own 12 intending the ball for Junior Riggins. Linebackers Dennis Onkotz deflected the pass into the arms of cornerback Mike Smith at the 35 and the 185-pound sophomore raced to the 11 before being bumped out of bounds. A Campbell run moved the ball to the nine and Doyle made another defensive gem. He hit fullback Cherry, forcing a fumble that end Vernon. Vanoy leaped on at the six.

For the Jayhawks, it was still no go, and the ball changed hands three times before Bob Garthwaite's 31-yard field goal attempt went far wide right on the last play of the half. Halftime in the stands and the press box, was spent discussing what happened to the predicted wild offensive show. Eastern writers grumbled that Penn State should have been far ahead. Midwestern writers whistled a sigh of relief. Penn State, no one would argue, looked like the better team. Those mistakes. That's what hurt the Nittany Lions. As the second half opened, the unbeaten Pennsylvanians set out to prove it. KU received the kickoff, but it took only three plays before Bell had to toe the ball again. Starting on its own 33, Penn State began to creep along. Two Burkhart passes, good for 40 yards to All-American Ted Kwalick and a 12-yarder to end Greg Edmonds, were the big gainers as the Lions streamrolled to the Kansas five.

A touchdown appeared inevitable. The KU defense, maligned oft-times for giving up a lot of points, stood poised. What ensued was the finest hour for that underrated defense all season. Cherry, a 220-pound battering ram, rumbled to the two. On second down he was stopped at the one by Morgan. On third down, Cherry again toted and he was stopped at the half-yard line by middle guard Al Jakobeic and Vanoy. On fourth and goal, Hicks burst in to dump Pittman on the two as he tried to slice off left tackle. Apparently the gutsy goalline stand was all the dormant Kansas offense needed. Beginning at the two, the Jays strung up four straight first downs to their own 35.

Passes to George McGowan (16 yards) and wingback John Jackson (19 yards) penetrated to the P-State 31. A five-yard wingback reverse by Jackson went to the 26. Seconds later, Bell tried a 42-yard field goal after the drive fizzled. His kick fell far short. The quarter ended scoreless, but for the first time, the Jays knew they could move. Yet, early in the fourth quarter, it took the play that helped Shanklin earn the MVP honor to put the Jays on top 14-7.

With fourth and an inch or so to go at their own 14, the Lions punted. Shanklin fielded it on the KU 47, got a timely block from Hicks and skirted down the south sidelines, reversed his field, spun off a would-be tackler and finally was lassoed from behind by Pittman on the seven. Big John Riggins burst through the one and scored on the next play with 12:38 remaining. Bell's kick was good, but the Lions had plenty of time. The KU defense, however, stopped them at their own 36. After Steve Brezna's punt, KU began a march from its own 38. It resulted in what will be remembered as the second most discussed happening in a game full of happenings. Two Douglass passes to Mosier and a piling-on call helped moved the ball all the way to PSU's 14 before Shanklin leaped and skipped off tackle to the seven. It was third and three when Shanklin advanced the ball to the five to make it fourth and one.

A field goal would have given Kansas a 17-7 lead, but coach Pepper Rodgers, in an ultimate fateful decision, decided to go for the first down. John Riggins was stacked up at the line of scrimmage and Penn State took over. And again the Kansas defense forced to punt. With 6:25 left, the Jays managed a first down but also had to kick. Penn State had the ball with 3:32 yet to tick off. And, would you believe, again the Jays stopped the powerful Lion attack after three plays setting the stage for those climactic two minutes that will be discussed, rehashed and wept over for many moons. Campbell led the Lions in rushing with 104 yards in 18 carries while John Riggins paced KU with just 52 in 18 tries. Penn State finished 11-0 on the season and Kansas ends at 9-2. Before the game, the Lions were installed as a half point favorite. They didn't miss by much.

MEMPHIS (Lawrence Journal World) - A national television audience and a crowd of 50,011, which braved freezing temperatures, saw the Jayhawks whip North Carolina State in first downs and total offense.

But the Wolfpack won the game, 31-18, to make KU 1-3 in its post season bowl appearances. The only Kansas bowl win came in 1961, a 31-7 rout of Rice in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

In retrospect, it was probably Kansas' kicking game, or lack of it, which caused the most trouble Monday. Time and again poor kickoff coverage, mediocre punting and shaky kick receiving put the Jayhawks in bad field position. Kansas never once started a drive in State territory. The Jayhawks had to march 70 yards for a first quarter score, from their own 18 to State's 11 for a field goal and 74 yards for a last-gasp TD in the final period.

Although out-first downed 24-17 and out-offensed 348 yards to 274, the Pack needed to go only 52 yards for its first score, 19 for its second TD, and NCS got another when freshman defensive tackle Jim Henderson intercepted a Dave Jaynes pass and carried it 31 yards for the tally which made it 31-10.

Even though Kansas had impressive offensive statistics, the Jayhawks never really appeared that sharp. Fullback Robert Miller enjoyed the best game of his career in rushing for 104 yards. Jaynes threw 24 completions in 38 attempts for 218 yards and Bruce Adams had several spectacular catches among his eight receptions.

Yet there were a lot of dropped passes by Kansas players, too. Defensively, Kansas never surrendered a huge gainer but at the same time forced only one turnoverKurt Knoff's third quarter interception.

"I'd like to compliment North Carolina State," said KU coach Don Fambrough in the locker room. "They have a very fine football team and they deserved the win."

"They came back in the second half and controlled the ball. We were not sharp on offense. We were dropping balls and doing things you just can't do. Of course, they had a lot to do with that. We didn't get a fumble recovery and threw a couple of interceptions which hurt."

At halftime, the score was deadlocked at 10. State broke the ice when Adams, KU's deep man on punts, stumbled (Adams claimed and TV reruns showed he was tripped) while trying to field a punt. When he fell the ball hit his leg and the Pack took possession on KU's 19.

Adams came up fast signaling a fair catch, but tripped over a Carolinian and missed the ball. NC State safety Ralph Stringer plucked the loose ball and ran into the end zone, but officials said it was a fumble recovery at the KU 19.

Adams and other Jayhawks protested. "I was looking up at the ball," Adams said. "I asked one official what was the rule about me tripping over someone. He said, 'I wasn't down there.' I tried to get an explanation from another official but he just turned an walked away."

Two plays later fullback Stan Fritts went in from the eight and State had a 17-10 lead.

Early in the final stanza, KU drove to the Wolfpack 23, but Mike Love, who had booted a 28-yard field goal in the second quarter, missed from 40 yards out and State followed with the drive that broke KU's back.

More than eight minutes of clock time was erased as the Pack went 80 yards in 17 plays. Only one play was a pass. Longest of the 16 runs was Charley Young's 12-yard TD dash at 4:50. Young's tally made it 24-10. Four KU plays later, Henderson snatched the pass which iced it.

"We are a better football team than the way we played tonight," Fambrough said. "But at the same time, that is in no way meant to take anything from North Carolina State. Tonight they were the better team."

State coach Lou Holtz, as one might expect, was ecstatic.

"We were tired of hearing things that belittled the Atlantic Coast Conference," he said. "I don't want to take anything away from Kansas, but I think we showed some folks that we do play good football in our league.

"We're not real fancy. We just try to run at people, and I feel we do a pretty good job of that. We wanted to do several things. We wanted to punish their receivers, not give the deep one, force Jaynes to go to his secondary receivers and keep him contained."

One thing Kansas maintained Monday night was its string of injuries. Linebacker Dean Baird and defensive tackle Fedro Dillon both left in the first quarter with knee wounds and each will require surgery. Those ailments brought to 14 the number of serious injuries which struck Kansas this season.

Also hurt Monday night were running back Delvin Williams who missed the last quarter with a back injury and tight end Ken Saathoff who took a blow to the head. Neither injury was believed serious, however.

EL PASO – Pittsburgh gave Kansas a painful lesson in how to run the football here today and posted an impressive 33-19 victory over the Jayhawks before a capacity crowd of over 30,000the first sellout in the 41-year history of the game.

The Panthers beat down two early Jayhawk threats to surge to a 19-0 halftime lead on the running of quarterback Robert Haygood, fullback Elliott Walker and All-American tailback Tony Dorsett. And the Pitt defense seemed always equal to the challenge of the Kansas Wishbone offense when it counted.

Kansas' hopes of victory were badly weakened by penalties, too many errors, and poor tackling and defensive lapses that often let Panther backs drive for added yardage after it appeared they had been stopped.

Haygood, Walked and Dorsett all rushed for well over 100 yards each and it wasn't until the second half that Kansas really got into contention following a costly slump following its early thrusts.

Walker and Dorsett each scored two touchdowns for Pitt, and Kansas running star Laverne Smith scored on runs of 56 and 15 yards in the second half in a gallant effort to spark a Jayhawk rally. The final KU score came on a 38-yard scoring pass from substitute quarterback Scott McMichael to reserve halfback Skip Sharp.

Kansas made too many costly errors in the first half, to let the game get beyond reach. Adjustments at the half projected the Jayhawks back in to the battle after intermission, but the Panthers had far too much momentum.

The Jayhawk offense was badly hindered by the lack of a productive passing attack. Quarterback Nolan Cromwell either overthrew or couldn't locate receivers, and the only type of aerial threat came when McMichael, the passer, replaced Cromwell, the runner, in the dying moments.

The McMichael-Sharp touchdown play came with 2:02 to go in the game.

It was KU's fourth loss in five bowl tries, the only victory coming in 1961 against Rice, 33-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston.

Kansas went to the dressing room trailing 19-0 at the half following a close officiating call deep in Pitt territory, a long run by Walker, a short Pitt drive after KU interfered with a punt receiver and a Kansas fumble set up a Panther scoring punch just before intermission.

Kansas was plagued by penalties and ball-handling miscues., but Pitt also had penalty problems and might have led by a wider halftime margin but for infractions.

On its first possession following reception of the opening kickoff. Kansas scored on an 82-yard play that involved an option run by Cromwell and a pitch to Bill campfield who raced untouched into the end zone. But Cromwell's pitch was ruled an illegal forward pass and the touchdown was erased.

With 9:40 left in the first quarter, the Jayhawks got the ball on their 20 after a 57-yard Carson Long field goal fell short and drove to the Pitt 16 for fourth and inches. Cromwell, fullback Norris Banks and Skip Sharp did the bulk of the running in the Jayhawk wishbone.

On fourth down, Cromwell thrust himself ahead on a sneak and seemed to have the first down. But the officials ruled Pitt held, did not bother to measure despite protests from KU coach Bud Moore and Pitt flew back to score.

The Panthers took a 7-0 lead on a pitch from quarterback Haygood to fullback Walked that covered 60-yards. It amounted to a 14-point play because the fourth-down call cost Kansas a touchdown, then Pitt scored.

Pitt had to drive only about 35 yards for its second touchdown when Kansas interfered with a receiver on a punt. All-American Dorsett exploded the final six yards and Long's kick was wide.

With 4:04 to go in the half, Kansas had the ball at its own 49 in good field position. But the Cromwell-Banks handoff misfired. Pitt recovered and the Panthers used most of the rest of the time to drive to paydirt.

Dorsett pounded in from the two with 26 seconds left. A conversion pass try was intercepted to hold the count to 19-0.

At halftime, Pittsburgh had 302 total yards to KU's 116, and out-first-downed the Jayhawks 12-6.

Dorsett had 112 yards in 15 carries, with two touchdowns; Walker had 96 in five tries and one score; Heygood was 13-70 in rushing. Cromwell had 32 yards on 11 carries in the first half.

BIRMINGHAM (Lawrence Journal World) - The Jayhawks wrapped up the old year with a 10-0 loss to Mississippi State, but 1982 has arrived and so, perhaps, has Mike Frederick.

Frederick is a 6-1, 165-pound freshman quarterback for the Jayhawks who received his college football baptismal against the Bulldogs.

Oh, Frederick had played a couple of minutes against Colorado during the regular season, but Thursday was his first real opportunity under fire.

"I was nervous all right," said the young Miami native, "but coach Don Fambrough gave him another chance with 1:29 remaining in the game.

He almost led the Jayhawks to a touchdown. First, he hit Wayne Capers for 45 yards and then connected with Bob Johnson for 19 and eight yards on successive plays.

Moment's later, Frederick passed to Garfield Taylor for nine yards to the MSU five. Time ran out as he was sacked on the next play, but Mississippi State had too many men on the field and the ball was moved to the two-yard line for one more play with :00 on the scoreboard.

Frederick tried to hit Johnson in the corner of the end zone. He missed.

"He (Johnson) ran an out pattern and he was supposed to run a fade," Frederick explained, "so I just threw the ball and it went in the ground."

No, the Jayhawks didn't score, but Frederick showed enough stuff to attract Fambrough's attention.

I wouldn't criticize him, no way," Fambrough said. "All he needs is to play. I feel good about having him and Seurer (Frank) next year."

With Seurer sidelined with a bad elbow, Fambrough had moved Frederick, a junior varsity signal-caller this season, up behind veteran Steve Smith.

Smith struggled so Fambrough went to Frederick.

"I was just trying to establish some offense," the KU coach said. "It was obvious we didn't have anything going. Frederick's just a freshman and it wouldn't have surprised me if he'd thrown his first pass into the press box."

Frederick missed the press box by plenty, completing seven of nine aerials for 110 yards. His only problem was waiting too long to throw at times. He was sacked on five occasions.
If Frederick is KU's New Year's baby, then Smith, a fifth-year senior, was Old Man 1981. His career ended Thursday and, it goes without saying, not in the fashion he preferred.

"For me, this was something more than another game," Smith said softly.

"Later we'll look back on it and not feel too bad, but that doesn't help me right now."

Offensive guard David Lawrence, Smith's roommate for the last five years, knew what was racing through his friend's mind.

"I really feel for him," Lawrence said, looking over toward where Smith was dressing. "He didn't up any more than the offensive linemen, the running backs or the receivers. He just stands out because he plays quarterback.

"I'll tell you, no one is a better leader or person than Steve Smith and I think everyone in Lawrence, Kansas, knows that."

HONOLULU (Lawrence Journal World) - Judging from how well their Christmas went, Kansas' football players and coaches must have been very good boys this year.

The Jayhawks awoke Friday and ran over to Aloha Stadium and unwrapped a 23-20 win over Brigham Young in the Aloha Bowl.

A bowl win isn't just another fruitcake for KU's football program. This was the first in 31 years.

"Needless to say, we're ecstatic," coach Glen Mason said. "We're not a program that's spoiled yet. We get excited about every little thing, except this pouring water on the old coach is getting a little old."

During their 8-4 season, players doused Mason with coolers of water after wins over Kansas State and Oklahoma. They got him again after beating BYU.

"They threw two buckets on me today," Mason said. "I read in the paper it can cause heart attacks."

It should do his heart good to think that the Jayhawks' reliable old weapon, kicker Dan Eichloff, has a year's eligibility left, and that KU has found a new weapon in sophomore Rodney Harris.

Harris moved from tight end to wide receiver during practice for the Aloha Bowl. On Friday, he caught four passes for 142 yards, including a 74-yarder for a touchdown and a 48-yarder to spark Kansas out of a case of third-quarter doldrums and out of a 20-12 hole.

Eichloffno bumhit two of two field goals. His kick from 48 yards out with 2:57 left provided KU's winning margin.

Kansas actually trailed twice, and the first time it took just 13 seconds. Hema Heimuli fielded Eichloff's opening kickoff and returned it 94 yards for a touchdown.

It took the Jayhawks 18 seconds to tie it. Their first play was a six-yard naked reverse by quarterback Chip Hilleary. On second down at the KU 26, Hilleary lateraled to wide receiver Matt Gay, and Gay, under pressure, lofted a pass to Harris, who ran it in untouched.

"We had that planned," Mason said. "We were going to do that in the first two plays of the game."

The pass was designed to go to tight end Dwayne Chandler. Harris was Gay's second option as a receiver.

"It didn't work exactly the way we worked on it, but Rodney was a heck of a lot more open than we ever worked on it," Mason said.

By halftime, the Jayhawks had a field goal and a safetydefensive tackle Chris Maumalanga nailed BYU's Jamal Willis in the end zoneand had rolled up 208 yards offense to 144 for Brigham Young. But they trailed, 14-12.

The cougars owned the third quarter, outgaining KU, 187-33, but only managed to stretch their lead to 20-12. One of three missed field goals by kicker David Lauder came in that span.

That left the door open. With 12 minutes left, Kansas made its first first down in 11:46, and on the next play, Hilleary scored two plays later on a one-yard option keeper, and he ran a naked reverse for the two-point conversion and a 20-all tie.

On their next possession, after converting a crucial fourth down at midfield, the Jayhawks went ahead on Eichloff's last field goal.

With 2:11 left, Charley Bowen intercepted a pass by Cougar quarterback Tom Young, and KU needed one first down to guarantee a win.

Deja vu. One late first down against Colorado, and the Jayhawks would have won that one, too.

"I used that as an example in the huddle," Hilleary said.

HONOLULU – Kansas' football team went to the Aloha Bowl looking for a shootout, but it was hit and miss for UCLA.

A comparison of the respective quarterbacks tells the story of which gunslinger was quicker to the draw. Kansas senior quarterback Mark Williams completed 18 of his 27 pass attempts for 288 yards and three touchdowns.

"If I had to say what the difference in the gam was, I thought Williams at quarterback was absolutely outstanding," UCLA football coach Terry Donahue said.

The Jayhawks built a 23-0 lead before the Bruins finally got on the scoreboard. With 7:40 remaining in the third quarter, UCLA freshman quarterback Cade McNown hit freshman split end Brad Melsby on a quick slant for an eight-yard touchdown.

McNown was inconsistent all game, though, completing only 13 of 34 passes for 121 yards. Although he did manage three touchdowns, they came late in the game.

"We didn't really get it going," McNown said. "We were just inconsistent the whole first half."

The closest the Bruins came to catching the Jayhawks was a 37-22 deficit with 12:43 remaining in the contest. This was made possible be freshman free safety Vito Clemente, who recovered an onside pooch kick following McNown's second touchdown pass.

After UCLA recovered the ball on the Kansas 30-yard line, it only took five plays and 1:01 to get into the end zone. Junior talkback Karim Abdul-Jabbar started left at the five yard line and then turned upfield for the score.

Abdul-Jabbar did his part for the Bruins, as he had all year, finishing with 152 yards rushing and a touchdown on 26 carries. He also had four receptions for 34 yards.

On the ensuing drive, the Jayhawks marched down to the Bruins' 21-yard line before UCLA junior cornerback Paul Guidry intercepted a Williams pass.

UCLA took possession of the ball on its own five-yard line with a chance to cut into the 15-point Kansas lead, but couldn't convert a first down. Abdul-Jabbar was stopped for no gain on third down and one and freshman tailback Akil Davis was stopped for a four-yard loss on fourth down.

"We didn't let up in the second half," McNown said. "Even though the score didn't indicate it, we all came away winners."

Kansas added to its lead three players later, as Williams used a play-action fake and rolled out to his left. Putting a move on UCLA junior free safety Anthony Cobbs, Williams ran in for a six-yard score with 4:30 to play.

Both teams added a touchdown in the closing minutes and the Jayhawks held on for 51-30 victory.

"We thought we could make as many big plays as they could," UCLA junior outside linebacker Abdul McCullough said. "The big difference was their playmakers made plays and ours didn't."

Donahue, who is retiring to work as an analyst for CBS, came a full circle as he coached in his first bowl game for Kansas and coached in his last bowl game against the Jayhawks.

The finale is one he would just as soon not remember.

"Its obviously disappointing for me to leave coaching on this note," the UCLA coach said. "I thought that if we lost I wouldn't feel as bad as I feel. I think it was an accomplishment for this team to get to a bowl game.

"I just wish we could have performed better than we did."

ORLANDO (Lawrence Journal World) - The Kansas jayhawks football team had nearly a month to prepare for Philip Rivers.

It wasn't enough.

Rivers set North Carolina State and Tangerine Bowl records Monday night at Florida Citrus Bowl for completions (37), completion percentage (82.2), passing yards (475), touchdown passes (five) and total offense (495 yards).

Tangerine Bowl officials had billed their game as a high-scoring duel between Rivers and KU's Bill Whittemore. Both senior quarterbacks delivered, but it was Rivers who came out on the winning end of a 56-26 blowout.

"You never know if you're going to be able to blow the door open," said Rivers, who finished 37-of-45 and at one point completed 16 consecutive passes. "We thought going in we'd have the opportunity to make some plays. We felt like there were some holes right behind their linebackers, and that's where we attacked."

Rivers set KU opponent records for completions and was one yard shy of matching the 476 passing yards Utah's Mike Fouts struck the Jayhawks for in a 1996 game. N.C. State's 481 passing yards, however, was a record.

"We didn't get anything done," KU coach Mark Mangino said of his defense, which had finished the regular season allowing averages of 392.6 total yards and 28.3 points.

The Wolfpack's 56 points were the most by a KU opponent this season, as were their 653 total yards. N.C. State scored on eight of its 11 drives.

"We didn't play well on defense at all," Mangino said. "There's no excuses. We should be better. We should play better. We should tackle better. We should cover better. We should play the run better, and we didn't."

Rivers was unstoppable in the first half, completing 21 of 24 passes for 268 yards and three touchdowns. It took N.C. State (8-5) only three plays and 62 seconds to take the lead. Rivers completed a 45-yard touchdown pass to Richard Washington to begin the onslaught.

Kansas (6-7) countered with a nine-play scoring drive, capped by Whittemore's 23-yard TD pass to Charles Gordon, but Rivers and the Wolfpack answered with another quick strike. Rivers hooked up with Washington for a 14-yard TD at the end of a scoring drive that took just 1:58 off the clock.

N.C. State had controlled the ball for only three minutes but already had 14 points on the board with 8:43 to go in the first quarter.

Kansas was able to move the ball against N.C. State's maligned defense, but the Jayhawks netted only three points the rest of the first half. KU's next drive stalled at the NCSU 33, and Kansas opted to punt on fourth-and-15.

"It's always frustrating when you have a long drive and you're not able to finish," offensive lineman Adrian Jones said. "We always talk about finishing, but we didn't finish."

Senior Curtis Ansel pinned the Pack down on their own three, but NCSU simply mounted a 97-yard scoring drive. Rivers completed five of six passes for 72 yards, and T.A. McLendon made it 21-7 with a one-yard run.

Kansas again drove into Pack territory at the 35, but A.J. Davis picked off a Whittemore pass and returned it 48 yards to the KU 39. N.C. State kicker Adam Kiker later missed a 49-yard field-goal attempt — marking the only time the Wolfpack failed to score in the first half.

Jerod Brooks made a 28-yard field goal for Kansas with 4:05 remaining, but McLendon tacked on a three-yard TD reception with 45 seconds left in the half.

Kansas opened the second half with a nine-play scoring drive capped by Whittemore's 11-yard shovel pass to Clark Green, which cut the deficit to 28-17.

Whittemore passed for 243 yards and two touchdowns in his final college game. He also ran for a TD and set a Tangerine Bowl record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 84.

Rivers added a 40-yard TD to Brian Clark, and Reggie Davis added a 10-yard touchdown run. By the time Johnny Beck kicked a 39-yard field goal for KU with 3:42 left in the third quarter, the game's outcome wasn't in question.

After Whittemore's nine-yard TD run pulled KU within 42-26, N.C. State added a 21 yard TD reception by Jerricho Cotchery — who caught 13 passes for 171 yards — and a 26-yard TD run by McLendon.

Mangino wasn't concerned with the Wolfpack piling on late. And the coach said he had no problem with Amato showcasing Rivers for a national television audience. The quarterback left the game, along with Cotchery, with 8:10 remaining.

Mangino's offense, meanwhile, finished with 463 total yards.

FORT WORTH - The University of Kansas closed out the 2005 season with a 42-13 victory over Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl Friday night at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The win gave the Jayhawks their first bowl victory since winning the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the most wins (seven) in a decade.

Junior Brian Murph put Kansas (7-5) on the board early when he returned a Houston punt 85 yards for a touchdown. The punt return for a touchdown was the first of Murph's career and KU's longest of the season. Sophomore Scott Webb kicked the extra point to give the Jayhawks a 7-0 lead 10:26 into the game.

Houston (6-6) scored its first points of the game in the second quarter (14:22) when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas answered on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish for a touchdown. Webb converted on the extra point to give KU a 14-3 lead.

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. Bell's extra point brought UH within four, and KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU's 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson (12:43) 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day and 11th of the season. Webb's kick gave the Jayhawks a 21-10 advantage.

After a 44-yard field goal by Houston's T.J. Lawrence, Swanson connected with senior Mark Simmons on a 32-yard pass to top off an 80-yard, 3:32 scoring drive. The TD and extra point (Webb) gave KU a 28-13 lead with 4:57 left in the third stanza.

KU pulled away when senior Charlton Keith picked off a Kolb pass at the Jayhawks' 14-yard line 2:37 into the fourth quarter and ran it in for a touchdown. The interception was Keith's first and marked his second career touchdown. Just over a minute later, Baines nabbed his second interception of the day, giving KU the ball on the UH 46-yard line.

Murph scored his second touchdown of the day in the fourth quarter, a 48-yard pass from Swanson, to give the Jayhawks a 42-13 advantage.

Swanson threw for four touchdowns and had 19 completions on 29 attempts for 307 yards in the final game of his career. Swanson joined Kolb as the teams' 2005 Fort Worth Bowl MVPs.

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. – Sophomore quarterback Todd Reesing threw a touchdown pass and ran for another, while Orange Bowl Most Valuable Player Aqib Talib returned an interception 60 yards for a touchdown as the eighth-ranked Jayhawks earned a 24-21 FedEx Orange Bowl triumph over No. 3 Virginia Tech Thursday at Dolphin Stadium.

It marked KU's second bowl victory in the last three seasons, and its first Bowl Championship Series win. The Jayhawks (12-1) finished perhaps their greatest season with a school record 12 victories.

In a game that was billed to be a clash between KU's offense and Virginia Tech's defense, it was the Jayhawk defense and special teams that led the way.

KU matched a bowl game record with three interceptions, while five different Jayhawks collected quarterback sacks. Of the three interceptions, none was bigger than Talib's first quarter pick that he returned 60 yards to give Kansas a 7-0 advantage. It was KU's first defensive touchdown since Talib returned an interception 100 yards against Florida International earlier this season.

Senior place kicker Scott Webb stretched KU's lead to 10-0 with 12 minutes remaining in the first half. After Chris Harris picked off Tech's Sean Glennon, the Jayhawks capitalized with a 32-yard field goal from the left hash mark.

KU took a 17-0 advantage when Reesing led the Jayhawks on a 10-play, 59-yard drive that culminated with a 13-yard strike to Marcus Henry on a slant across the middle. It marked Reesing's 36th career touchdown pass, giving him the top total in team history.

Virginia Tech answered the Reesing touchdown with a 13-play, 52-yard drive that ended with a one-yard plunge by Brandon Ore. It made the score 17-7 going into halftime.

The Hokies cut the lead to 17-14 on an 86-yard punt return by Justin Harper early in the second half. Harper received a pitch from the original punt receiver Eddie Royal on a reverse, and scampered 86 yards down the near sideline for a touchdown.

Tech threatened again in the third quarter, but KU held onto its lead when junior Joe Mortensen blocked a 25-yard field goal. It was the Jayhawks' first field goal block of the season.

The Jayhawks took advantage of another Hokie turnover early in the fourth quarter. Following a Justin Thornton interception deep in Tech territory, Reesing stretched the KU lead to 24-14 with a two-yard run on a bootleg to the near side. It was the quarterback's third rushing touchdown of the season.

Tech again fought back to within one score on a 21-yard pass from Glennon to Harper with three minutes remaining. The Hokies held Kansas on a fourth down try from the Tech 23 and marched the ball 77 yards on 14 plays.

After the score, the Hokies tried an onside kick, but were negated possession when Raimond Pendleton recovered the ball at Tech's 43-yardline. From there, the Jayhawks moved the ball down to the Hokie one-yard line to run out the final two minutes, 59 seconds of the contest.

Reesing finished the game with 227 yards on 20-of-37 passing. He had one touchdown and one interception. Eight different Jayhawks hauled in passes, including junior Dexton Fields who finished with seven catches for 101 yards. Henry had two catches for 20 yards.

Senior Brandon McAnderson carried the ball 15 times for 75 yards, including a handful of big runs to keep the clock moving late in the fourth quarter. He also completed a pass attempt on a fake punt late in the third stanza.

Junior Mike Rivera led KU's defense with seven solo tackles and five assisted tackles as well as a tackle for a loss.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Todd Reesing threw for 313 yards, while Dezmon Briscoe recorded 201 yards in receptions to lead Kansas football to a 42-21 victory against Minnesota in the 20th Insight Bowl on Wednesday.

Kansas improved to 8-5 on the season, while Minnesota dropped to 7-6. The victory gave the Jayhawks their third straight bowl win in the past four seasons – all under head coach Mark Mangino – as well as their fifth bowl victory in their last six games.

Reesing completed 27 of 35 passes for 313 yards and four touchdowns, while Briscoe pulled in 14 catches for 201 yards and three scores. Kerry Meier added 10 receptions for 113 yards and one touchdown, and also threw for one touchdown.

Briscoe's 14 catches tied Meier's school record for a single-game, while his 201 yards rank as the fifth-best day in school history. Meier's 10 catches tied for the eighth best day in school history as he went over the 100-yard mark for the fifth time this year.

On defense KU's trio of senior linebackers shined. Mike Rivera matched a career high with 14 tackles, while Joe Mortensen also tied his career best with 13 stops. Linebacker mate James Holt added eight tackles, with four for loss, including three sacks. The three sacks were the most by a Jayhawk since David McMillan had three at Missouri in 2004. Holt finished the year with at least one sack in six straight games.

Briscoe was named the game's most valuable offensive player while Holt was tabbed the game's top defender.

Kansas struck first scoring on a 60-yard pass play from Reesing to Briscoe on the game's opening play from scrimmage. The 60-yard scoring toss was the longest for the Jayhawks since Briscoe scored on a 69-yard reception at Oklahoma back on Oct. 18.

The score was the quickest for the Jayhawks since Greg Heaggans returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown against Southwest Missouri State in 2002.

However, Minnesota responded on its first possession, as the Gophers threw a 75-yard pass on their opening play to set up a quick touchdown. The 75-yard pass was the longest allowed by the Jayhawks this season by 20 yards.

Trailing 14-7, in the first quarter, Kansas scored the game's next 28 points to take a 35-14 lead in the third period.

The Jayhawks scored on four of their first five possessions, while shutting Minnesota down after the Gophers scored the first two times they had the ball. After that UM's next six possessions results in four punts, a fumble and a drive ended on downs at the one yard line.

Reesing was nearly flawless in the first half throwing four touchdown passes and at one point completing a school-record 14 straight passes. His 14 straight completions beat the old school mark of 12 by two different players – Mark Williams vs. Iowa Sate in 1995 and Mike Norseth vs. Florida State in 1985. He finished the first 30 minutes hitting 19 of 23 passes for 221 yards and the four scores.

In the first half, Briscoe had 10 catches for 147 yards and two scores, while Meier added five receptions for 43 yards and a touchdown. Johnathan Wilson added the other first-half touchdown reception.

The Jayhawks also rushed for 86 yards in the first half, as Jake Sharp had 54 yards on 11 carries and Reesing added 32 yards on six rushing attempts.

KU produced 307 yards of total offense in the first half, while the Jayhawk defense limited the Minnesota offense to 194 yards. Eighty-seven of the Gophers first-half yards came on their first drive of the game.

Midway through the second quarter Briscoe had reached the 100-yard receiving mark for the fourth straight game, setting a new school record for consecutive 100-yard games. The sophomore had two touchdown receptions among his first six catches for 106 yards.

Reesing continued his record-setting career as he threw for a touchdown pass for the 18th consecutive game. He became the school's all-time pass attempt leader as well, moving ahead of Frank Seurer.

With four touchdown tosses, Reesing finished the year with 32, one shy of his school mark set last season. He also threw for 300 yards for the 13th time in his career and eighth time this season.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Kansas came back from a 25-point deficit to force overtime in the 64th AutoZone Liberty Bowl, but came up short in three overtimes, falling 55-53 to Arkansas in a thriller.

Kansas quarterback Jalon Daniels set a plethora of single-game and KU bowl records, leading the Jayhawks back from a 25-point deficit to force overtime. Kansas scored the last 25 points of regulation, including an 18-0 advantage in the fourth quarter to force overtime after trailing 38-13 with 8:43 to play in the third quarter. The Jayhawks forced a turnover, recovered an onside kick and scored two touchdowns in the final 1:05 to tie the game at 38-all.

Daniels, who became the first Kansas quarterback to ever top the 500-yard mark, set the Kansas single-game school record for passing yards (544) and yards of total offense (565), setting new AutoZone Liberty Bowl records for both as well. Daniels also set the Liberty Bowl record for touchdown passes with five, which is a KU bowl record and matches the second-most in school history for a single game. Daniels finished the game 37-for-55 for 544 yards and five touchdowns while adding 21 yards and a touchdown on 14 rushing attempts.

Daniels was named KU's Outstanding Offensive Player, while OJ Burroughs, with eight tackles and an interception, earned the Outstanding Defensive Player honor.

Arkansas scored midway through the third quarter to go up 38-13, but momentum swung the way of the Jayhawks after that. KU covered 86 yards in just five plays on its next drive, using long receptions from wide receiver Luke Grimm and Mason Fairchild to get into position for running back Ky Thomas to score on a two-yard touchdown run. The touchdown from Thomas, his second score of the game and second rushing touchdown of the season, put the Jayhawks down 38-20 at the end of the third quarter.

Kansas had possession near the Arkansas red zone at the start of the fourth quarter and ended the drive with a 37-yard field goal from Owen Piepergerdes, which made it 38-23 with 14:07 to play. Things appeared bleak for the Jayhawks after they turned it over on downs with 3:52 to play, but the defense came up big with a turnover to again swing momentum. Marvin Grant forced a fumble that was recovered by Cobee Bryant and returned 37 yards, giving the Jayhawks new life with 2:43 to play.

Daniels led the Jayhawks down the field in seven plays and found Douglas Emilien for a 10-yard touchdown to make it 38-30 with 1:05 to play. On the ensuing kickoff, safety Kenny Logan made the onside recovery for the Jayhawks, giving KU a chance to tie the game in the final minute. That's exactly what happened as Daniels again led his team right down the field and scored on a 21-yard touchdown pass to Grimm with 41 seconds to play. Needing a two-point conversion to tie the game, the Jayhawks went for it and Daniels found Lawrence Arnold for the conversion to complete the comeback.

Arkansas had time for five plays, but they only crossed midfield on the final play as time ran out in regulation.

In overtime, Kansas got the ball first and scored on fourth and goal from the two-yard line as Daniels found Jared Casey to give the Jayhawks a 45-38 lead, KU's first lead since 7-3 in the first quarter. Arkansas needed just two plays to tie the game at 45-all, sending the game into a second overtime.

The Razorbacks got the ball first in double overtime and again scored in two plays, taking a 53-45 lead after a successful two-point conversion. Daniels scored on a two-yard touchdown run, setting up for a crucial two-point play to tie the game. On KU's attempt, Daniels again rushed the ball and was stopped short, but Arkansas was flagged for targeting, giving the Jayhawks a second chance. KU made the most of it as Daniels again found Casey in the flat to tie the game at 53-53.

Triple overtime meant two-point attempts only, with Arkansas going first. The Razorbacks were successful on their attempt, while Kansas' fell incomplete to end the Jayhawks longest bowl game in history.

Kansas set new bowl game records for first downs (32), pass attempts (56), pass completions (37), touchdown passes (5), total offense plays (90), and total offense yards (603).

Daniels led the way offensively with a single-game school record 544 passing yards and five passing touchdowns, breaking the previous record of 498 yards by Todd Reesing against Missouri on Nov. 28, 2009. He also set a new single-game school record with 565 yards of total offense, surpassing the mark of 509 set by Mike Norseth against Vanderbilt on Sept. 9, 1985.

Kansas had two receivers over the century mark as Grimm had career-highs of 10 receptions and 167 yards and a touchdown, while Lawrence Arnold had eight receptions for 119 yards. Fairchild, Thomas, Casey and Emilien each had touchdown receptions as 11 different Jayhawks caught a pass from Daniels in the loss.

PHOENIX – The Kansas Jayhawks defeated the UNLV Rebels, 49-36, in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl inside Chase Field in Phoenix, Arizona on Tuesday night, highlighted by six touchdown passes from Jason Bean and three touchdown receptions apiece by Lawrence Arnold and Luke Grimm.

Bean tied the Kansas football record with six touchdown passes and this was the first time two players have had three touchdown receptions in the same game in school history. Bean was named the Guaranteed Rate Bowl offensive MVP, while Kenny Logan Jr. was named defensive MVP.

The Kansas win gives the Jayhawks its first bowl victory since 2008, while the Jayhawks finish the season at 9-4, Kansas' first 9-win season since 2007. The victory makes Kansas 7-7 in all-time bowl appearances.

UNLV scored first on their first possession, marching down the field on an eight-play, 65-yard drive, which was capped off by a 3-yard rushing touchdown by running back Vincent Davis.

The Jayhawks evened the score while still in the first quarter on a six-yard passing touchdown from Bean to Grimm. The touchdown came on the heels of a 98-yard drive, which was Kansas' longest scoring drive since 2019.

KU got possession at its own 30-yard line with 5:03 to play in the half and drove 70 yards in nine plays, including a 44-yard reception from Bean to Quintin Skinner which moved the ball down to the UNLV one-yard line. On the next play, Devin Neal plunged into the end zone, making it 28-7, before UNLV knocked in a 40-yard field goal attempt to cut down KU's lead to 28-10 heading into the half.

Following the halftime break, UNLV stopped Kansas on its first drive and moved to an 11-point deficit at 28-17 with 12:15 remaining in the third quarter on a 5-yard pass from Maiava to Shelton Zeon III. UNLV would add another passing touchdown on a 37-yard strike to make the score 28-24 with 10:30 left in the third quarter.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Kansas struck back on a 40-yard throw from Bean to Arnold, which put Kansas back up 11 with 14:52 to play. The 40-yard touchdown reception capped off a 99-yard drive, Kansas' second drive of 98 or more yards in the game to put the Jayhawks up 35-24.

After the long drive by the Jayhawks, UNLV responded with a seven-play, 88-yard yard drive to bring the score to 35-30. The Rebels failed to convert on the 2-point conversion.

With two receiving touchdowns already between the duo, Bean found Arnold a third time on a 56 yard screen play to put Kansas up further, 42-30 with 11:10 remaining in the game.

The three touchdown receptions tied the Kansas bowl record for receiving touchdowns in a game, tying Dezmon Briscoe's three receiving touchdowns set in the 2008 Insight Bowl vs. Minnesota.

On the ensuing UNLV possession, Kansas cornerback Cobee Bryant recorded his fourth interception of the season on a pass by UNLV's Jayden Maiava. Kansas would take advantage of the Bryant interception, as Grimm scored his second touchdown of the day on a 60-yard touchdown pass from Bean to put Kansas up, 14-7 with 11:37 remaining in the first half.

UNLV missed a 52-yard field goal on their next possession, setting the Jayhawks up with good field position for a five-play touchdown drive that covered 66 yards and was capped with a 15-yard touchdown strike from Bean to Arnold. At that point, Kansas led 21-7 with 7:57 to play in the half.

On the first play of UNLV's next drive, Maiava was picked off again, this time with KU linebacker Craig Young hauling in his second career interception. The Jayhawks gave the ball right back, however, two plays later as Bean was picked off in the end zone. Kansas then held the Rebels to a three and out on the next drive, setting the stage for another scoring drive.

Grimm added another touchdown reception to his tally on a 43-yard strike from Bean in the fourth quarter to extend KU's lead to 49-30. This was the first time in Kansas football history that two players recorded three touchdown receptions each.

UNLV answered with a long touchdown of its own, completing a 50-yard touchdown reception before failing a two-point conversion. Kansas maintained a 13-point, 49-36 advantage with 6:25 left in the game.

Kansas entered victory formation as it claimed its first bowl victory since 2008 with its 49-36 win over UNLV.

This listing of all-time lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Included are names -- in some instances first name and not actual name on roster -- along with position and years lettered of the more than 2,000 letterwinners who have played at the University of Kansas. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to the KU Communications Office.

CAPSULE HISTORY

1890 SHERMAN SCORES FIRST KU TOUCHDOWN

Kansas played its first official football game, losing to Baker University in Baldwin, Kansas, 22-9. Right halfback A.F. Sherman scored KU's first touchdown on a punt return. An account of the game in the Weekly University Courier described Sherman's TD: "Hudson punted the ball down the field. Sherman managed to get the ball and made a phenomenal run for the first Kansas score ever made in football."

1899 KANSAS HAS FIRST PERFECT SEASON

In his only season as head coach at Kansas, Fielding H. Yost led the Jayhawks to a 10-0 record, which represents one of just two perfect seasons in the 129 years of football competition. KU outscored its opponents 280-37 and averaged 28 points per game. Yost, who later gained fame as head coach at Michigan, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

1908 FIRST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Jayhawks finished with a 9-0 record, outscoring their opponents 131-20, and claimed the school's first conference championship by finishing with a 4-0 record in the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Conference.

1912 KU DEFEATS MU IN FIRST HOMECOMING

Playing its first Homecoming game before a crowd of 9,000 fans at McCook Field, KU downed rival Missouri, 12-3. Jayhawk coach Arthur Mosse used a new offensive alignment, known as the "Minnesota Shift" to confuse the Tigers that afternoon.

1920 PHOG ALLEN BUILDS A FOOTBALL STADIUM

Legendary KU basketball coach Phog Allen, in his only season as head football coach, rallied his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie against Nebraska. Leading the team were senior quarterback Dutch Lonborg and halfback John Bunn, who were later inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame. Monday, students and faculty gathered to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 was pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium to replace McCook Field.

1921 JAYHAWKS OPEN PLAY IN MEMORIAL STADIUM

In the first game in Memorial Stadium, the Jayhawks defeated Kansas State, 21-7, in front of 5,160 fans. When the stadium opened, the east and west side stands were completed with a capacity of 22,000. The final game of the 1921 season saw KU down Missouri, 15-9, before 15,480 fans.

1931 KU PLAYS HASKELL IN FIRST HOME NIGHT GAME

On a Friday night, Oct. 2, Kansas hosted the Haskell Indians in the first-ever home night game in Jayhawk football history. The concept for a night game came from KU athletics director Phog Allen, who was able to transport portable lights that were borrowed from Haskell Stadium (also in Lawrence) and put them in place at Memorial Stadium. In front of 11,000 fans, Haskell surprised KU with a 6-0 victory.

1947 EVANS & SCHNELLBACHER: FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Led by KU's first two All-America selections - halfback Ray Evans and end Otto Schnellbacher - the Jayhawks finished the season with an 8-1-2 record, tied for first in the conference and capped the season by playing Georgia Tech in the 1948 Orange Bowl. It marked KU's first appearance in a postseason bowl game. Among the victories that season for head coach George Sauer was an 86-6 win against South Dakota State, which represents the most points a KU team has ever scored in a single game. KU finished the year ranked 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

1960 JAYHAWKS UPSET A NO. 1-RANKED TEAM

The Jayhawks faced one of the most challenging schedules in school history, facing three teams (Syracuse, Iowa and Missouri) ranked No. 1 in the nation. KU lost early in the season to Syracuse (14-7) and Iowa (21-7), but the elite backfield combination of John Hadl, Curtis McClinton, Doyle Schick and Bert Coan helped lead the Jayhawks to a 23-7 upset win versus then No. 1-ranked Missouri. The win was later forfeited when it was determined that Coan had received a free plane ride to the College Football All-Star Game in Chicago from a KU alum.

DR. JAMES NAISMITH & THE GAME OF FOOTBALL

The man credited with inventing the game of basketball - Dr. James Naismith (right) - also had a significant impact on the development of football. Naismith took a football and cut it lengthwise and placed it over his head to protect his ears as a football player at Springfield College. Thus, the first football helmet was invented.

Naismith was hired by the University of Kansas in 1898 as director of physical education on the recommendation of legendary football coach Amos Alonzo Stagg. He retired from active teaching in 1937 after 39 years as a member of the KU faculty.

1963 SAYERS SCAMPERS FOR NCAA RECORD

Hall of Fame halfback Gale Sayers put his name in the college football record book by breaking loose on a 99-yard run against Nebraska in Lincoln, the longest run from scrimmage at that time in NCAA history. Only four other backs (including KU's Eric Vann) have accomplished a run of that length in the history of college football.

1967 A COACHING STAFF OF EXCELLENCE

After finishing with a 5-5 record in his first season as head coach in 1967, Pepper Rodgers assembled one of the greatest coaching staffs in KU history to begin the 1968 season. The staff included several assistants who would later achieve fame as head coaches, including John Cooper (Tulsa, Arizona State and Ohio State), Dick Tomey (Arizona), Terry Donahue (UCLA), the late Dave McLain (Wisconsin) and Don Fambrough (Kansas). The staff also included Doug Weaver (former athletics director at Georgia Tech and Michigan State) and Larry Travis (former athletics director at Kansas State and Western Carolina).

1968 ROGERS TAKES KU TO ORANGE BOWL

Under the guidance of coach Pepper Rodgers, KU came within five points of an undefeated season and a victory in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks tied for first in the Big Eight and finished 9-2 with losses to Oklahoma (27-23) during the regular season and Penn State (15-14) in the Orange Bowl. Among the standouts were quarterback Bobby Douglass and fullback John Riggins.

1973 A CARDIAC SEASON

The Jayhawks experienced a cardiac season with six games decided by two points or less -- the most games decided by that margin in NCAA history. KU finished the year with a 7-4-1 record, winning three of those close encounters, and played North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl.

1975 CROMWELL GUIDES KU TO UPSET OVER OU

Kansas defeated No. 2 Oklahoma in Norman, 23-3, to end the Sooners' 28-game winning streak and 37-game unbeaten string. Earlier in the season, quarterback Nolan Cromwell set a new NCAA record for rushing yards by quarterbacks with 294 yards on 28 carries in a 20-0 win against Oregon State.

1991 TUXEDO TONY RUSHES FOR 396 YARDS

Running back "Tuxedo" Tony Sands set an NCAA single-game record by rushing for 396 yards on 58 carries in a 53-29 win against Missouri in Lawrence. Sands was later named Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference.

1992 FIRST BOWL WIN IN 31 YEARS

Head coach Glen Mason guided KU to its first bowl win in 31 years as the Jayhawks defeated Brigham Young, 23-10, in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. Led by defensive linemen Dana Stubblefield and Gilbert Brown, along with quarterback Chip Hilleary, KU finished the season with an 8-4 record and placed third in the Big Eight Conference.

1995 SURPRISE TEAM OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Picked to finish fifth in the Big Eight preseason polls, the Jayhawks were one of the surprise teams of college football with a 10-2 season and a win over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Along the way, KU defeated two ranked teams (Colorado and Oklahoma) on the road. The season ended with a twist of drama as head coach Glen Mason announced just prior to the bowl game that he was leaving after the UCLA encounter to become head coach at Georgia. Mason later changed his mind and stayed as head coach, informing his team on the morning of the Aloha Bowl. KU cruised to a 51-30 victory.

1997 KANSAS NABS 500TH VICTORY

Terry Allen was on the sidelines for his second conference victory as head coach at KU and the school's 500th win in school history as the Jayhawks downed Oklahoma, 20-17.

2005 KU REACHES SECOND BOWL GAME IN THREE YEARS

Mark Mangino became the first head coach in KU history to lead his team to two bowl games in a three-year span as the team faced Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl. KU clobbered the Cougars, 42-13. Quarterback Jason Swanson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

2007 JAYHAWKS CLAIM BCS BOWL VICTORY

Consensus National Coach of the Year Mark Mangino guided the Jayhawks to arguably the greatest season in Kansas football history as the Jayhawks won a BCS Bowl (FedEx Orange Bowl), finished the year ranked seventh in the country for the second-highest ranking in school history, and posted a 12-1 record. Three Jayhawks: Aqib Talib, Anthony Collins and James McClinton, earned All-America honors as KU was the only team in the nation to rank in the top five in both scoring offense and scoring defense. The Jayhawks became the talk of the nation after running up 11-straight victories before suffering their first loss in a matchup with Missouri. KU entered that regular-season finale ranked second in the country while the Tigers were listed third. Despite the loss, the Jayhawks were selected to play in a BCS game and finished the season with a victory against No. 5 Virginia Tech in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

2008 JAYHAWKS REACH CONSECUTIVE BOWL GAMES FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

For the first time in school history Kansas played in bowl games in consecutive years as the 2008 Jayhawks won the 2008 Insight Bowl a season after claiming the 2008 Orange Bowl. KU's 20 combined wins in 2007 and 2008 were the most in school history as well.

2023 KANSAS REACHES BACK-TO-BACK BOWL GAMES

After a 15 year bowl drought, Kansas played in back-to-back bowl games for just the second time in program history, including Kansas' first win in a bowl game, the 2023 Guaranteed Rate Bowl, since 2008. During the 2022 and 2023 seasons, Kansas hosted both ESPN College Gameday and FOX Big Noon Kickoff for the first time in program history.

2023 KANSAS BEGINS WORK ON THE GATEWAY DISTRICT

Following the 2023 season, Kansas broke ground on the transformational Gateway District and David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium renovations.

2025 KANSAS OPENS SEASON AT THE NEW DAVID BOOTH KANSAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Kansas Jayhawks will open its 134th season of football at the new David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium as the Jayhawks host Fresno State in week 0.

BREAKING BARRIERS

HOMER FLOYD

ED HARVEY

ED HARVEY became the first African-American to play football at Kansas, earning his "K" letter as a member of the 1893 Jayhawk team. Harvey's parents were born into slavery and later escaped Quantrill's Raid in Lawrence. They became share croppers and were able to put their three sons through college.

It was 62 years later when HOMER FLOYD, a standout at Massillon (Ohio) High School, broke the modern-day color barrier to play football at KU. Floyd enrolled at Kansas at the urging of his high school coach, Chuck Mather, who served as the Jayhawk head coach from 1954-57.

Floyd, a team captain in 1958, started all 30 games of his career (1955-58) on offense and defense. He led the Jayhawks in rushing yardage all three years and earned all-conference honors as a senior. Floyd later played for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and then served as executive director of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.
